RELIEF STRIKE GROUP PUT IN CALGARY JAIL

Police Foil Attempt of 250 to March Through Downtown Streets

Thirteen Held To Face Charges

CALGARY (CP)—Thirteen of Calgary's relief strike leaders, including E. C. Hopper, president of the Unemployed Married Men's Association, were arrested following an attempt of 250 men and women to march through downtown districts today.

Hopper, United States-born director of the strike, which started April 6, and his lieutenants were taken from the parade lines by police when they disobeyed orders to "stay away" from the business section of Calgary. Eleven of the men, including the 55-year-old president of the unemployed association, were charged with unlawful assembly. The other two were held on vagrancy charges.

The marching strikers adopted new tactics today. Police concentrated at St. George's Island Park, where non-strikers were at work, expected the pickets to march there, but instead they headed for the downtown section after leaving the labor temple.

When the marchers attempted to parade down Eighth Avenue, into the heart of the business area, the motorcycle constables barred their way.

LEADERS SEIZED

Hopper was heading the parade and when he attempted to march past the officers he and another leader were arrested.

Police reinforcements soon arrived from the park area and when the picketers made another attempt to head into downtown Calgary, 11 more men were arrested.

Finally, police detoured the parade and, headed by women members, some with children, the picketers marched back to the strike headquarters at the labor temple.

The leaders submitted quietly to arrest and no attempt was made by the other strikers to interfere with the police.

Langlie Is Now Mayor of Seattle

SEATTLE (AP)—Arthur B. Langlie was installed mayor of Seattle today at a special council meeting.

He was given the oath of office for the unexpired term of the late John F. Dore, at the close of the council session. The vote for him was unanimous.

STOCK PRICES IN BRITAIN SWING

LONDON (AP)—The stock market opened today with declines up to 10 per cent following yesterday's announcement of increased taxation.

Industrial and oil shares led the drop. Speculative shares were slightly lower, and government stocks were weaker.

Later the market recovered somewhat under good buying. Gold mine shares, oils and transatlantics led the recovery. The market closed near the best, but slightly below yesterday except gold mines, which in some cases were higher.

British Workers Silent As They Calculate Effect of Defence Budget

LONDON (CP)—Sir John Simon's pay-as-you-go budget decision presents British taxpayers with the highest income tax since the Canadian-born Chancellor, Andrew Bonar Law, levied six shillings in the pound, or 30 per cent, in the last year of the Great War.

The present Chancellor of the Exchequer's five shillings and sixpence adds up to 27½ per cent, which, along with tea and gasoline tax boosts, meant silent tube trains this morning as workers did bits of mental arithmetic between the gloomy folds of the heavily-typed newspapers.

Sir John Simon asked: "Shall we borrow or tax?" and Britain was unmistakably his answer today. But, excepting the London Daily Express, Independent, which suggests a campaign for abandonment of the extra sixpence, there is notable unanimity in the press that the additional

Three Questioned About Hold-up

Vancouver Police Detain Trio, Including New Yorker, For Jewel Robbery

VANCOUVER (CP)—Three suspects were held here by police today in connection with the $1,700 jewel hold-up of Mrs. Cecelia Hall in a west end apartment last Saturday night.

They were arrested after police had raided two downtown hotels early today. Detectives said one of them came from New York.

Another suspect held earlier by police was released last night after witnesses had failed to identify him in a police line-up.

The man was picked up in a gambling raid yesterday and charged as an inmate of a gambling house. He was released on $10 bail, but rearrested for investigation in connection with the jewel theft.

FOUR DEAD IN PLANE WRECK

Remains of Missing Machine Found in Sequoia Forest, California

VISALIA, Cal. (AP)—Joseph E. Elliot, superintendent of the Sequoia National Forest, said today a ground crew reported it had reached the wreckage of an airplane which vanished Monday and that all four passengers—residents of Visalia—were dead.

The plane, piloted by Dr. O. N. Lambert, was en route from Death Valley to Visalia when it disappeared into a storm which broke out soon after it had left the ground.

Those aboard, in addition to the pilot, were Dr. Lambert's wife, her mother, Mrs. Frank Blain, and Miss Dorothy Davis, Dr. Lambert's office nurse.

The search turned toward Sunday Peak in the Greenhorn Mountains after Curtis Z. Branson, Civilian Conservation Corps worker, reported he had seen a plane apparently having motor trouble during a heavy rainstorm early Monday. There the wreckage was found.

PENSION PLANS UNDER STUDY

Revamping of Teachers and Municipal Schemes Planned This Year

Pension schemes of both teachers and municipal employees in British Columbia will go under government study this summer for decision as to how they can be placed on a sound basis.

At their convention recently teachers learned that the reserves in their pension fund were being eaten up faster than they were built and that the scheme faced collapse unless a remedy was found.

The reserve was made by charging each teacher 4 per cent of a half year's salary to begin with, 4 per cent of a full year's salary for each new teacher joining the plan, and a $25,000 yearly grant from the government for 10 years. This last grant expired this year.

A large list of retirements due to ill-health and economy measures by school boards has placed a heavy drain on the reserve.

The question to be considered by the government is twofold. It involves, first, a revamping of the entire pension scheme to make it actuarially sound; and, second, the government's position as a trustee for funds already paid into the plan. This may require a further government contribution.

Position of the municipal employees' superannuation scheme will also be clarified this year, it is understood. Two years ago when a new plan for provincial civil servants was drafted, calling for heavier contributions, municipal employees asked for delay in their part of the scheme, seeking a better arrangement. The government is awaiting their proposals.

NEWS SERVICE MEETS TESTS

Canadian Press Equal to Year's Flood of Reports, Annual Meeting Told

TORONTO (CP)—H. P. Duchemin, K.C., of the Sydney Post-Record, today told the annual meeting of the Canadian Press in his presidential address that in the last year the national news-gathering organization of Canada's daily papers "met the challenge of new tests and vital problems in a highly gratifying manner."

"Never since the years preceding the Great War has it been so essential to keep the Canadian public intelligently and reliably informed of the trend of events in Europe as during the last 12 months," he said. "To this end the reorganization of our London bureau, carried out under the personal supervision of our general manager in the early part of 1937, was effected at the psychological moment. I am sure every member of our organization will bear cordial testimony to the marked improvement which has since taken place in our cable service from Great Britain."

Mr. Duchemin referred to the recent decision of the Supreme Court of Canada, declaring ultra vires the proposed press control bill of Alberta Legislature, as "something more than a victory for the newspapers of Canada."

Counterfeit Molds Found; Men Held

VANCOUVER (CP)—Three men were held by police today on charges of possessing counterfeit molds.

The accused, John Nikkels, Harry Arnett, and William Clark, were arrested after Royal Canadian Mounted Police officers had raided a downtown building last night.

The raid followed investigation by R.C.M.P. into reports of circulation of bogus United States 50-cent pieces in Vancouver.

The federal officers said molds and coins were found on the premises.

Other timber wolves have been seen in the vicinity.

Albania Has Royal Wedding

King Zog Marries Apoponi of Hungary in Simple Ceremony at Tirana

TRIANA, Albania (AP)—In a civil ceremony of mountaineer simplicity, Countess Geraldine Apoponi of Hungary became the first Queen of the Albanians today when she was accepted in marriage by King Zog.

A salvo of 101 guns, the tolling of church bells and shouts of Mohammedan muzzins prayerful from minarets signaled the marriage.

The ceremony was held in an atmosphere half Oriental, half Occidental.

They were declared man and wife by Hegmet Delvina, vice-president of parliament, after he had read the conditions of marriage from the civil code in the presence of 200 guests and members of the royal family.

JAPAN TROOPS IN NEW DRIVE

Attack Toward Outer Mongolia May Endanger China's Supply Routes

SHANGHAI (AP)—The Japanese army has launched a vigorous campaign in far northwest China, advancing toward spheres of Soviet Russian influence.

The new area is within 100 miles of Outer Mongolia, under protection of the Soviet Union, and neutral authorities here believe the drive may endanger the land routes by which considerable Russian war supplies have been reaching the Chinese army.

The Japanese today reported capture of Anpei, 50 miles northwest of Paotow, in Suiyuan province. After an all-day battle, the Japanese said, the Chinese left 560 dead and 500 prisoners. (Gen. Mah Chan-shan, hero of Chinese resistance to the Japanese in Manchuria in 1931-33, has been reported commanding the Chinese in that region.)

The Shantung-Kiangsu border just north of the vital Lushan railway continued the main battlefield, with the Chinese admitting slow advances by the enemy.

CHARGE OF THEFT

VANCOUVER (CP)—Robert Ellison was en route to Zeballos, B.C., today to face a charge of theft. He was arrested here a few days ago by British Columbia police.

SHANGHAI (AP)—A threatened clash between British and Japanese in the Shanghai area was averted, Wednesday night when Japanese authorities promised to release the British steamship Tungwo before morning.

Previously it was understood a British gunboat was prepared to effect the release by force if necessary.

Japanese soldiers in launches had halted the 1,337-ton steamship off Haimen, near the mouth of the Whangpoo River, about 15 miles from Shanghai, alleging a Chinese passenger had fired a pistol at a Japanese soldier.

British authorities promised a prompt investigation of the alleged firing.

GUNBOAT STANDS BY

The Japanese pledge was understood to have followed a strong British demand for release of the ship, backed by the applied threat of the gunboat Cricket standing by at Shanghai, evidently ready for action.

The Tungwo belongs to the Indo-China Steam Navigation Company.

Unconfirmed reports said a Japanese had bayoneted a Chinese member of the Tungwo's crew.

Although the Japanese army was responsible for halting the Tungwo, Vice-Admiral Kiyoshi Hasegawa, commanding Japanese naval forces in China waters, conducted negotiations for the release.

Temperature Is Near 1938 High

Shortly before 2 this afternoon the temperature stood within one degree of the hottest so far this year.

After the cool morning breeze died down the thermometer rose rapidly. At the lunch hour the weather bureau on Gonzales Heights reported the mercury had reached 62 degrees and was still rising. In the downtown area the figure was several degrees higher.

The hottest day so far this year was April 7, when the mercury reached 63 on top of the hill.

The forecast for tonight and tomorrow was partly cloudy and milder, with possible light scattered showers tonight and tomorrow morning.

Warships Enter Spanish Battle

Rebel Vessels Shell Land, Seeking to Aid Troops Stalled at Alcala

HENDAYE, Franco's Spanish Frontier (AP)—Gen. Franco's war fleet went to the aid of his stalled land forces today and bombarded Spanish government positions on the heights about Alcala de Chivert with its big guns.

Gen. Jose Miaja's strongly reinforced defence line from the Teruel sector to the Mediterranean held the insurgents virtually motionless for the fourth day. Barcelona dispatches said the seaport city of Castellon was bombed four times Tuesday by insurgent fliers, and about 50 persons were killed and 70 houses wrecked. Twenty insurgent planes participated in each raid. Fighting became more severe along the northern Catalan front in the mountains east of Tremp. Government reports acknowledged that new insurgent attacks had resulted in Franco's troops pushing toward Seo de Urgel.

Farther north, however, the government said insurgents were forced to retire from positions around Llavors, near the French frontier. After blasting the insurgents with artillery fire, the government drove the insurgents westward in the direction of the Aran Valley. Heavy snow in the mountains impeded operations.

The fighting east of Tremp centred around San Roma de Abella, where government gunners laid down a heavy barrage (Turn to Page 2, Col. 1) with mountain guns. The insurgents attacked, breaking through government lines, but government counter-attacks were said to have recovered the lost ground.

In the deadlocked conflict along the eastern seacoast, the insurgents, following their usual tactics of shifting attacks from flank to flank, directed their main offensive along the coastal road, about Alcala de Chivert.

That town, 25 miles north of the seaport of Castellon, has been a battlefield for a week.

Offsetting the insurgents' capture of two key points, La Torretta and Falado Point, the government seized the dominant Apalaza de Alcala de Peak, which stands west of the town, like a sentinel over the valley, down which extend the highway and railway.

Ford Has Talk With Roosevelt

WASHINGTON (AP)—Henry Ford left the White House after a long luncheon conference with President Roosevelt today on United States business conditions, remarking only that he had had a pleasant visit.

The 74-year-old multi-millionaire automobile maker refused to answer any questions as he emerged on the front portico in the midst of nearly 100 newspapermen.

"Did you have a pleasant visit?" he was asked as he hurried into his big black limousine to go to the railroad station.

"Sure," was all that he would say.

TAX BOOST IS TAKEN CALMLY

LOOKS TO 1939

"The country must not quail," said Sir John, and it seems the country will not quail. But after the first shock of the increased taxes comes today's deeper suspicion that the Chancellor chose the sterner course now, when revenues are buoyant, in order to ease the burden next year, when things may not be so rosy.

Sir John's apology speech on the radio last night was notably half devoted to an explanation of war preparedness as the main cause and it is well known that war preparedness costs are likely to be good deal higher in future months.

As The Times of London, Independent, said, "It will not be a popular solution, but it may at any rate claim the virtue of courage."

ORTHODOX BUDGET

It was a plain, simple, unimaginative, orthodox budget given in the manner of a great lawyer, with more attention to logic than psychology. The chancellor paused only twice in 97 minutes of speech to drink from an opaque glass which may or may not have been the cough mixture which it is known Lady Simon brews for her husband.

The chamber received the cold statistics with unhappy silence except for a few "phews" when the income tax boost was revealed, as all authorities had prophesied otherwise.

The merchants and brokers of Mincing Lane were not surprised by the increased tax duty and declared it was not expected to have much effect on the market.

Typical was Sir Josiah Stamp's reaction. "While I regret the necessity for the increases in taxes, I think they might have been worse," said the head of the country's largest railroad, "industry will not like it, but this is the price we pay."

Sir John Simon's own last word was Burke's remark: "To tax and to please is no more given to man than to love and be wise."

BELOW ESTIMATE

The London Daily Telegraph, Conservative, calculated actual borrowing for defence purposes last year and this year will amount to only £126,000,000 ($630,000,000), instead of £170,000,000 provided in estimates, leaving a margin of £44,000,000 to cover supplementary estimates.

"That being so," the paper argued, "where, it may be asked, was the real necessity of saddling the already grievously oppressed taxpayer with immediate fresh burdens?"

A Chinese foot ruler used about 500 B.C. is marked off in 10 inches, and one of the inches is divided into tenths.

Mortgage Men Tell Rowell Board Provinces Should Limit Borrowing

TORONTO (CP)—Provincial control of municipal borrowing was recommended by the Dominion Mortgage and Investment Association today for the protection of the credit of the province and other municipalities as well as the immediate municipality concerned.

The credit of Canadian municipalities as a whole had been adversely affected by the extent of the default situation, the association claimed in a submission before the Royal Commission on Dominion-Provincial Relations.

"Apart from loss of credit, there has developed a serious loss of confidence in municipal securities and investors no longer regard them as primarily gilt-edged," it asserted.

"This loss of confidence is reflected in the difficulty experienced in marketing debentures of some municipalities which have not defaulted."

EXTRAVAGANCE OPPOSED

In addition to the financial side, there was need for effective supervision of the physical side of borrowing, in the association's opinion, "so that projects for which borrowings are to be made by municipalities on extravagant, ambitious or unnecessarily costly scales may not be permitted."

It said the history of loans to farmers showed the heavy losses the taxpayers had had to bear "without any contribution of much value having been made to our agricultural economy."

"To the extent that governments use their taxing or borrowing powers for purposes that can be fulfilled by private enterprise, they reduce their capacity to take care of those functions that can be performed by governments only," the brief stated. "A disregard of that fact has helped to cause some of our difficulties in public finance in this country."

The association yesterday dealt at some length with charges that mortgage companies imposed excessive interest rates in western Canada, considerably higher than the rates in eastern Canada. It was asserted such companies had not made any profit in their western Canada mortgages since the turn of the century.

EAST FIFE WINS SCOT- TISH SOCCER CUP IN OVERTIME

Initial half. He also bagged the fourth East Fife counter five minutes from the end of overtime.

McLeod knotted the count in the second, 45 minutes after Kilmarnock had changed over in the lead and Miller broke the 2 to 2 deadlock in overtime. Kilmarnock's starshooters were Thomson and McGrogan, the former converting a penalty after he had been heavily brought down.

FIRST HALF

Kilmarnock won the toss and McCartney kicked off for East Fife. The Killies soon raided the second division team's goal where McGrogan forced a corner but the kick was cleared.

As in the first game, Kilmarnock's defence was inclined to be shaky under pressure and the backs frequently kicked into touch. On the other hand, the East Fife forwards lacked finish in front of the goal.

McGrogan netted for Kilmarnock but the point was disallowed the referee ruling that the ball was outside when Thomson passed to the left winger.

Play ranged from end to end, the Kilmarnock defence conceding two corners in quick succession.

The first goal of the game went to East Fife, McKerrroll netting from a long throw-in by Russell. Noted for the length of his throws, the East Fife right half sent the ball to the centre of the field. McCartney let it pass and the outside-left beat Hunter with a great drive.

Kilmarnock knotted the count five minutes later from a penalty. Thomson was going through when he was brought down heavily. The same player took the kick sending the ball into the corner of the net.

The major leagues went into the lead after 26 minutes, McGrogan getting a gift goal. Milton in the Methil team's goal made a faulty clearance, the ball bouncing off his body to the Kilmarnock outside left who had no trouble in scoring.

Both teams showed improvement over Saturday's performance. As the game progressed Kilmarnock's defence regained its form and held the opposing forwards. Adams worked hard for the second league outfit, on one occasion nearly scoring with a header.

SECOND HALF

East Fife changed its attack for the second half, McLeod and Miller changing places. After a few minutes Kilmarnock was forced to rearrange its team when Collins was injured. The centre-forward went to the right wing, his place being taken by Thomson.

Only 12 minutes had elapsed when McLeod put the scores level. McKerrroll placed a corner kick squarely in the goal mouth and his colleague cleverly hooked the ball over his shoulder into the corner of the net.

A hard-tackling game developed and there was little to choose between the two teams. Much of the play was in midfield, but so strong were opposing defences that the forwards were unable to break through. Neither team looked like scoring as the time-limit approached.

With the score tied 2 to 2 the teams lined up again for 30 minutes overtime.

OVERTIME

Already handicapped with Collins limping on the wing, Kilmarnock suffered another loss early in the overtime period when McAvoy was hurt.

Sensational play followed with East Fife taking the offensive. Miller put the second division entry ahead after 20 minutes of fast play that had the huge crowd on its feet.

The Methil players attacked with renewed confidence, McKerrroll polishing off a close-in attack with a clever goal five minutes before the end.

The teams follow:
Kilmarnock—Goal, Hunter; backs, Fyfe, Millar; halfbacks, Robertson, Stewart, Ross; forwards, Thomson, Reid, Collins, McEvoy, McGrogan.

East Fife—Goal, Milton; backs, Laid, Tait; halfbacks, Russell, Sneddon, Harvey; forwards, Adams, McLeod, McCartney, Miller, McKerrroll.

Man Accused Of Killing Wife

Mrs. W. McQuarrie Stabbed in Winnipeg; Widower Charged With Murder

WINNIPEG (CP)—William McQuarrie, 58, today was charged with the murder of his wife, Gertrude, 44, stabbed in the throat with a penknife here last night.

Mrs. McQuarrie was fatally stabbed while returning home from the Winnipeg juvenile police court, where Judge F. A. E. Hamilton had awarded her custody of her nine children.

Her eldest son, Victor, said his stepfather, William McQuarrie, had attacked his mother and had chased him after stabbing him in the shoulder.

Mrs. McQuarrie also had sought a legal separation from her husband, who had just completed a two-year jail term for a statutory offence.

Death of Mrs. McQuarrie was due to an internal hemorrhage after the penknife had pierced her jugular vein and the external carotid artery.

as one of the world's two youngest queens. Queen Geraldine is 22, Queen Farida 17. Queen Geraldine is the only queen possessing American blood.

The ceremony took place in the flower-banked annex of the small royal palace.

The bride, slightly taller than the king, was resplendent in a bridal gown of white satin.

The king wore a sabre and colorful decorations with his uniform as commander-in-chief of the army.

The bride rode to the palace behind four prancing stallions sent from Hungary by the Apponyi family.

She was followed by her mother, Mme. Glajys Stewart Girault, and her grandmother, Mme. Virginia Harding d'Ekena, both formerly of New York. One of her closest friends, Countess Muriel White Seher-Thoss, was in the group surrounding the bride.

Countess Seher-Thoss is a daughter of the late Henry White, United States diplomat.

TRIBESMEN THRILLED

The king's bodyguard of 1,000 men completely surrounded the palace grounds. Thousands of picturesquely dressed, thrilled-to-the-bones mountaineers—Ghegs from the north and Tosks from the south—milled about, trying to obtain a glimpse of the king, who rose from a tribal chieftain to establish a monarchy, and his queen.

Fifty thousand school children dressed in native costumes were in the throng, with gendarmes and deputations from every corner of the kingdom.

CHAIN STORES PRESENT BRIEF

Argument on Taxation Heard By Rowell Commission at Toronto

TORONTO (CP)—Constitutionality of "discriminatory" taxation imposed on chain stores by some provinces and some municipalities was challenged today by the Canadian Chain Store Association in a brief presented before the Rowell Commission.

It suggested the Supreme Court of Canada should be called on to disallow any provincial tax found to be discriminatory "either in effect or intent."

The association claimed taxes imposed on one class of retail merchant and not on its competitors were inequitable in that they interfered with freedom of competition. It said such taxes were unconstitutional for a variety of reasons.

They were contrary to the intent of the British North America Act, which gave the Dominion "exclusive" power of regulating trade and commerce, it argued.

They were contrary to the intent of the B.N.A. Act where it limited the taxing authority of the provinces to direct taxation for the purpose of raising provincial revenue.

They were contrary to the intent of section 21, which provided for the "free" flow of inter-provincial trade. They also tended to nullify the rights granted companies incorporated by the Dominion.

The type of taxation complained of was traced to a prejudice against chain store operations as "necessarily harmful" to independent retailers, "although it cannot be shown that an efficient independent merchant has ever been driven out of business by chain store competition."

In some municipal councils and provincial legislatures, the association claimed, it had been "blatantly stated on numerous occasions the chain stores should be eliminated for the benefit of the local storekeepers."

THREE RIVERS HIGHEST

In Quebec many municipalities imposed special taxes on chain stores, with Three Rivers topping the list with authority to impose a $2,000 tax on each chain store, said the association. However that authority had not yet been implemented with a civic bylaw.

In New Brunswick, the amount of the tax payable by chain stores was left to the discretion of the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council, making possible "such a heavy rate of taxation on extra-provincially-owned retail business as to make any type of retail business a monopoly of residents of New Brunswick," the association submitted.

DALADIER VISITS LONDON FOR TALKS AS EUROPE WATCHES

Associated Press today that "anschluss" (union) of Czechoslovakia's Sudeten Germans with Germany "is inevitable and the only question is whether it can be done without shedding blood."

"Before long the Sudeten Germans will raise a demand for union with Germany," this official said.

He asserted one of the chief concerns of German diplomacy was how to make France understand she would be violating no agreement if she declined to come to Czechoslovakia's aid at that time. He said:

"If the French can be made to understand that peace in Europe can and will be safeguarded, if only they will understand that people of the same blood and language have the right to form one Reich, another great step forward toward the pacification of Europe will have been taken."

An Associated Press dispatch last night said it had been learned from a source with excellent connections in high Nazi circles, that Konrad Henlein, leader of the Sudeten German party, was restrained only by Reichsfuehrer Hitler from proclaiming last Sunday in his Karlovy Vary speech that his movement placed itself under the leadership of the Fuehrer of Germany.

Such action would have been embarrassing in that acceptance of leadership by Hitler would have meant interference of the Reich with the affairs of another nation.

Henlein, therefore, had to content himself with sending a message of greeting to Hitler and at the same time studiously refraining from sending one to President Eduard Benes as chief of the Czechoslovak state.

That the real wish of the Sudeten Nazis is anschluss (union) with Germany was privately admitted by many delegates at the Karlovy Vary convention.

ROBBERS BUSY NEAR DUNCAN

Provincial Police at Duncan and Cowichan this week launched an intensive search for a thief or thieves who successfully perpetrated a series of robberies of various stores and failed in an attempt to rifle the Cowichan Post Office safe.

Early yesterday morning the Riverside Hotel was entered and a quantity of beer and small change taken. In the same vicinity George Johnson, garage operator, reported the theft of a quantity of tools and $10, and Scholey's General Store lost a quantity of clothing.

The post office attempt was believed made at the same time.

On Monday night thieves, who entered the Fairbridge Farm School stole two typewriters and unsuccessfully tried to pry open the school safe. A recent unsuccessful attempt to enter the James Seed Farm safe at Kokalah was also reported.

From B.C. Police headquarters here fingerprint experts have been sent to the island points to assist in the investigations. Outside of the possibilities of prints police reported there were no other tangible clues which might lead to the thieves' capture.

Man Held For Plot on Prince

BOULOGNE-SUR-MER, France (AP)—Police today held a man suspected of being a member of a Croatian terrorist organization for questioning about a reported plot to assassinate Prince Alexander, 13-year-old son of Prince Paul, Regent of Yugoslavia.

The man, whose name was listed on a false passport as Peter Burgle, was arrested at the request of the Yugoslav legation shortly before the young prince had arrived on his way to school in England.

BRITAIN BARS MEXICAN OIL

Boycott of Produce of Expropriated Wells Advocated By Government

LONDON (AP)—The British government in effect today advocated a boycott of oil taken from wells expropriated by Mexico from British companies until the question of those properties is settled.

Richard Butler, under-secretary for foreign affairs, disclosed this stand in replying to a question in the House of Commons. In a brief written answer to Robert Gibson, Labor, who had asked for a statement on the oil controversy, Mr. Butler said:

"In view of the recent notes addressed by His Majesty's government to the Mexican government requesting restoration of expropriated British oil properties, the marketing of oil from these properties by British subjects or companies could in the present circumstances be only a matter of embarrassment to His Majesty's government."

Great Britain has sent two notes to Mexico demanding return of the properties of the Mexican Eagle Oil Company, largest of 17 British and United States companies expropriated by President Lazaro Cardenas March 18.

Francis W. Rickett, British oil operator, has been negotiating with the Mexican government, presumably for purchase of oil from expropriated wells.

An Associated Press dispatch said the Mexican government Tuesday told Great Britain for the second time the expropriated properties of Agulla (Royal Dutch Shell) Oil Company would not be returned to their former owners. The refusal was made in a formal note.

Police Quell Chinese Crew

Oriental on Ss. Erviken Wanted to "Tour" New Westminster Last Night

NEW WESTMINSTER (CP)—Police were called here last night to keep the Chinese crew of the Norwegian steamer Erviken on board ship.

The 38 Orientals, who said they wanted to "tour" the city, rushed down the gangplank and attempted to get past two Canadian immigration officials.

The guards were fighting a losing battle until police reserves arrived.

When the police arrived they were met by a rush of the Chinese crew on the deck and a hand-to-hand battle took place in which several of the Chinese received minor bruises.

The crew made two attempts to pass the immigration guards on the dock. They later told police they had no intention of deserting ship but that they wanted to visit the town and buy clothing.

They claimed they had not been ashore since the ship left Rotterdam 40 days ago.

An extra guard was placed at the ship's gangplanks. Immigration authorities said here today it would be impossible for the Chinese to come ashore.

Bond Stolen Here Is Traced in Vancouver

VANCOUVER (CP) — Police today were seeking a man who entered a Vancouver bank yesterday and attempted to cash a bond coupon stolen from a Victoria home two months ago.

The bond coupon was included in loot taken by burglars who raided the home of Margaret Cook in the Oak Bay district February 2.

The bank refused to cash the coupon and later checked the number and discovered it was stolen.

Dewdney Poll Writ Issued

Writ for the provincial by-election in Dewdney riding was issued late yesterday afternoon. It sets May 16 as nomination day and May 20 as polling day. The poll is to fill the vacancy in the Legislature caused by the death of Dr. Frank Patterson, Conservative leader.

Canada's Silver Sales Reported

OTTAWA (CP)—Canada exported $19,820,866 worth of silver bullion to the United States in the calendar years 1935, 1936 and 1937, the government informed Thomas Reid, Liberal, New Westminster, in the Commons Tuesday.

In addition, the Dominion sent there during that period $4262,391 in silver in ore and concentrates and $161,198 in silver coin. Exports of bullion and ore and concentrates totaled 46,534,167 ounces.

PRIEST SLAIN IN CHINA

SHANGHAI (AP)—A message received at Jesuit headquarters Tuesday said Father Josephus Sontag, 39-year-old missionary, had been shot and killed by Chinese guerrillas at Sihensien, in Hopeh province, 110 miles south of Peiping.

SENTENCES IN HEDLEY CASE

Barker and Cox Ordered to Serve 18 Months For Mine
Conspiracy

VANCOUVER (CP)—Two former officials of Hedley Amalgamated Gold Mines Ltd. today faced prison terms of 18 months each for conspiring to defraud the public and conspiring to affect the market price of their company's shares.

After five hours' deliberation an assize court jury of 11 men and a woman shortly before last midnight returned a verdict of guilty on both counts against Russell E. Barker, one-time Hedley president, and William Cox, his mine manager.

Departing from the usual assize court custom of sentencing at the end of the session, Mr. Justice D. A. McDonald announced the prison terms for the pair.

A third charge of conspiring to defraud by "salting," or causing to be "salted," cores from the Hedley mine was dismissed.

DEPARTMENT SCORED

The jury added a rider to its verdict "deploring the inactivity of the Department of Mines in connection with their action in this case."

The charges were laid following a provincial government inquiry into the spectacular collapse of Hedley shares and the stock's subsequent suspension from trading on the Vancouver Stock Exchange in February, 1937. The report stated it found evidence core samples from Hedley, located in the Similkameen district, had been "salted."

In his charge to the jury Mr. Justice McDonald said:

"It is not the mines department which is being tried. It is not in my province to make any comment about that. But you may say why did not they notify the public and why did Deputy Mines Minister J. F. Walker allow thousands and thousands of shares to be sold until 11 o'clock (February 23, 1937), although he could have suspended trading at 8 o'clock?"

ACTION OF MINISTER

Mr. Justice McDonald said the Minister of Mines in July, 1936, wrote Hedley Amalgamated Gold Mines Ltd., warning them that they were publishing false reports and must stop.

"You may say that it is unfortunate that the minister did not follow that up," he observed. In conclusion he asked "Was there a conspiracy to defraud in the publication of the Bacon report?"

W. S. Bacon, practical mining engineer, had admitted on the witness stand during the eight-day trial he had signed a report favorable to Hedley without having seen the property.

In 1935 A. M. Richmond, then provincial mining engineer, reported to the government the Hedley property should be investigated. The report was never made public.

NO STATEMENT

"Have you anything to say?" Mr. Justice McDonald asked Cox when the jury's verdict had been read.

"No," replied the former mine superintendent.

"I sentence you to 18 months

VIENNA DENIES BOOKS BURNED

VIENNA (AP)—An official of the Vienna National Library said Tuesday foreign collectors had offered to buy from state institutions books declared illegal under the Nazi regime.

"Such offers, however, are an insult to the country and consequently were rejected," the official said. "The National Library has no intention to sell or destroy any of its volumes, legal or not."

He explained that works to be hidden from the public eye would be transferred to special rooms and carefully preserved.

OFFERS FROM U.S.

NEW YORK (CP)—Chancellor Hitler had plenty of requests today for those non-Aryan books he intends to "purge" from Vienna's national library by burning.

From two of the United States' foremost centres of higher education—Princeton and Yale Universities—and also from Brooklyn went pleas for the non-Nazi volumes.

In half-serious vein, Editor James Clarke of the Daily Princetonian sent a $5.32 cablegram Tuesday to Hitler asking the German Chancellor to give the university library books he intended to purge.

Gaspard D. A. Belin, chairman of the Yale Daily News, sent telegrams to the Daily Princetonian and the Harvard Crimson editors seeking their co-operation in a drive to get the volumes.

Raymond V. Ingersoll, president of the Brooklyn Borough, also called the chief librarian of the Austrian National Library.

Rt. Hon. Ernest Lapointe, Justice Minister, asked for his reasons.

"I have observed the signs of the times," he replied, with a smile on his face.

"The signs, not the time," interjected Rt. Hon. R. B. Bennett, Conservative leader.

NEILL LOOKING FOR ELECTION

OTTAWA (CP)—A. W. Neill, Independent, Comox-Alberni, believes there will be a general election this fall. He gave his opinion to the House of Commons Tuesday night.

"The signs, not the time," interjected Rt. Hon. R. B. Bennett, Conservative leader.

"I have observed the signs of the times," he replied, with a smile on his face.

Woman Dies In Manitoba Blaze

TRANSCONA, Man. (CP)—Mrs. Ernestine Francis, about 67 years old, was suffocated when fire swept through her home near Winnipeg early today. Her husband and three other persons escaped.

After the blaze was brought under control, the body of Mrs. Francis was found wrapped in a blanket near the bedroom window of the second floor.

Six Deaths In U.S. Tornadoes

DENVER (AP)—Tornadoes left six dead and more than a score injured today after an onslaught of freakish weather in five Rocky Mountain plains states.

Two rural school pupils, Mary Zorn, eight, and Ellen Brown, eight, were killed yesterday by winds which ripped through an area near Oshkosh, Neb.

A third victim, Jean Zorn, 10, died today at an Ashkosh hospital of injuries suffered when a tornado struck the Lone Star schoolhouse.

Three others lost their lives and at least five were injured, one critically, when a hit-and-miss twister laid waste scattered communities near Draw, Lynn County, Texas. Those killed were Mrs. V. O. Caswell, M. B. Walters and George Walters, who lost their lives at the Caswell farm home.

One-year-old Irene McKay suffered a skull fracture when she was torn from her mother's arms as the Louis McKay home near Draw was demolished.

High winds, rain, hail and dust were experienced in New Mexico, Colorado, Kansas and Nebraska.

At Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railroad detoured its trains over a branch line between Lamar and Holly, in southeastern Colorado, early today when a flood on Wolf Creek washed out railroad tracks.

Light rains yesterday settled a pall of dust which had been whipped up by 60-mile-an-hour winds in New Mexico's middle Rio Grande valley.

A War Budget

WHEN SIR JOHN SIMON PRESENTED his eagerly-awaited budget to the House of Commons yesterday he asked this question of the British people: Shall we borrow or tax? While they considered the full implications of this inquiry he increased the income tax from five shillings in the pound to five and sixpence. The majority of the newspapers today seem to be telling the Chancellor of the Exchequer that the already overtaxed Briton will grin and bear it because there is at present no other way to find the money which the government requires to pay for the services demanded by a combination of circumstances—paramount among which, of course, is an unprecedented armaments program.

It was naturally expected that Sir John Simon, one of Great Britain's most eminent lawyers and the possessor of a judicial mind which commands the respect of many jurists all over the world, would approach his task with much more consideration for logic than psychology. As a life-long Liberal, as leader of the Liberal National Party in the Chamberlain government, he always has been in close touch with the masses and understands better perhaps than any other member of the cabinet what an increase of sixpence in the pound means to the average wage-earner who comes within its application. Said he during the course of his 97-minute budget pronouncement: "I believe there is willingness, even pride, in the humblest home to take a share in rearmament for defending that home from peril," and "the load we have to bear will assuredly be carried with the dogged determination and dauntlessness of the British race."

The taxpayer requires all the dogged determination and all the dauntlessness he can command as he contemplates the further impost which his weekly wage or salary will have to bear. He probably will cast his mind back to the early days of 1914, before the "war to end war" had been fought, when the income tax on earnings beyond $800 a year was 16 cents in the pound—or 3.2 per cent compared with the new scale of 27½ per cent announced by the Chancellor of the Exchequer. He will, nevertheless, be able to console himself with the fact that the increase still leaves the tax sixpence short of the peak reached by the late Rt. Hon. Andrew Bonar Law in the last year of the Great War. The levy of that period was six shillings in the pound—or 30 per cent.

Whether five and sixpence will furnish all the revenue the Chancellor requires from this source is a question which time and national and international developments will determine. For when Sir John warned the House that the "peak year of the defence expenditure would not be reached until next year, and possibly the year after," he was hardly speaking in optimistic vein. The British people, of course, will agree with the truism he employed in dealing with the country's major and most costly problem, that "nothing could contribute so much to the ultimate reduction of the burden of taxation as an increase in international good-will and reduction of armaments."

The tragic feature of Britain's latest budget is that increased taxation is necessary to provide the money for greater production of the diabolical paraphernalia of war. More tragic still, perhaps, is the unassailable fact that the mood in which the world now finds itself reveals no other path for Britain to tread than the one along which she reluctantly set her course as soon as she found her example of disarmament not only had not been followed by other nations but, on the contrary, was being used as an argument by some to pursue a policy which might reduce her to a state of comparative impotency among the nations of the world.

American Women and Courts

IT HAS BEEN LEFT TO MR. JOSEPH Kennedy, the recently-installed, United States ambassador to Great Britain, to tackle a problem which has worried all his predecessors almost to the point of distraction. It is the desire of so many American women to be presented at the British Court.

American Republics, it has been said, dearly love a King; American women wish to be presented to him. It is not a case of "A Yankee at the Court of King Arthur," but of hundreds of American women—age makes little or no difference—many of whom travel specially to England in the hope of being presented at Court.

For many years the United States Ambassador has had the unpleasant task of selecting from all the applicants the couple of dozen he is allowed to present. The acceptance of some, the rejection of others, has caused much heartburning and many jealousies, while making miserable the life of the Ambassador. Now Mr. Kennedy has settled the whole affair by announcing that presentations to the Court by him will be confined to the families of American officials in England and to members of American families domiciled there.

The Contented Savage

JUST HOME FROM A TRIP TO THE backwaters of the Amazon, where he found jungle tribes strikingly free from white man's ills and white man's ways, an eminent scientist gives us new evidence that the untutored savage probably is a great deal happier and physically sounder than we are.

Along those far-off waterways this scientist found jungle tribes who go quietly about their business; nothing worries them and nobody hurries them—and they never have cancer, high blood pressure or heart trouble. Many of them live to the age of 100 years and remain hale and hearty to the last.

This, of course, is just another way of proving that we pay for everything we get in this world. We have a great many things that these remote savages lack, and we could not get along very well without them; but we pay for them by living hurried, nervous, fearfully complex lives, and the diseases that bring us low are nothing less than by-products of our civilization.

For better or for worse, however, we have got ourselves into a complex and artificial sort of society which cannot readily be simplified. The horse-and-buggy age—to come down a few generations from the day of the simple savage—may have had a leisure and a placid contentment that we do not have, but if we abolished all our modern gadgets we should all speedily die.

The clock defies us to put it back. The only possible direction we can travel is forward. And we shall make the kind of progress we need to make only if we stop moaning about the blissful past and try to find ways to adjust this modern society of ours to the deep, inner needs of the human spirit. It can be done, if we devote our minds to it; but it must be done by looking firmly and sensibly to the future.

To Get After Tax Dodgers

TAX DODGERS IN GREAT BRITAIN were warned by Chancellor of the Exchequer Sir John Simon yesterday that they will have to mend their ways or suffer the consequences. In the last few weeks a good deal has been said on this particular point. It has been alluded to as a "grave public scandal" and charges made that the Treasury is losing at least $150,000,000 annually—or the equivalent of the yield of sixpence in the pound income tax.

What is needed in the Finance Act, says Mr. Aylmer Vallance, writing in the Evening Standard, is one which will recodify income-tax law and empower the Tax Commissioners to levy assessments which disregard every artificial device to camouflage income. He contends the taxable income should be the real spendable income with the onus of disproof lying in the courts with the would-be evader.

The Observer, the influential weekly edited by Mr. J. L. Garvin, explains the abuses in plain language and sums up: "The financial tricks that facilitate the shirking of liability are open only to the rich, and the gap they leave has to be filled from the pockets of their poorer fellows. The scandal has been considerably reduced, but there is still enough of it to demand drastic legislation. And bodies like the Law Society and the Institute of Chartered Accountants might well consider whether members assisting such shabby practices ought not to incur measures of discipline."

Sir John Simon has added sixpence in the pound to the levy on wage-earners' incomes. He will collect it because they will pay it—pay it with much more willingness than the tax-evader forks out the sum that has been whittled down to the last farthing by the practices on which the Chancellor of the Exchequer has promised to train his legal mind.

Notes

The license commissioner says Coney Island needs a new coat of paint. And here we thought that visitors had been painting the town red for years!

A refrigerator has been invented that will loosen the ice cubes after they're made, but the chances are it won't sell unless it also mixes the drinks, passes them around, and explains what they're made of.

In his budget speech in the British House of Commons yesterday, Sir John Simon, Chancellor of the Exchequer, alluded to the words of Burke: "To tax and to please, no more than to love and to be wise, is not given to men." The great 18th century British statesman was speaking on the subject of American taxation. Sir John's reference to his words was apt.

CONFEDERATION HEADACHE

J.B.M. in Winnipeg Free Press
The most urgent of the issues before the Commission is financial. How are the governments of Canada to get money to carry on? Most of them are levying severe taxes, yet most of them are deeply in debt and some have difficulty borrowing at reasonable rates of interest. How are their budgets to be put on an even keel?

For one reason or another, the provinces have shared unequally (meaning unequally in ratio to population) in Dominion grants. The result is a catch-as-catch-can grab system of federal aid. There is no worse headache in the realm of bookkeeping than this complicated story. The question of the Commission is what formulas should be adopted—like the peace conferees of recent years, they are looking for a formula—to bring order out of confusion. It is distinctly possible that a formula will be found and applied. If that happens, the saving in one year's traveling expenses for mayors, provincial treasurers and ministers of public works—on their ceaseless pilgrimage to Ottawa in search of money—should nearly equal the cost of this Commission.

Loose Ends

By BRUCE HUTCHISON

BE KIND

BE KIND TO ANIMALS WEEK," they tell me, is from April 24 to 30. This is a repulsive idea. I can endure Apple Week, Turnip Week and Eat More Fish Week because their purpose is to make you do something you don't want to do or eat. You can ignore commercial weeks of that sort. But when it becomes necessary in a civilization to high-pressure people into being kind to animals, for one week a year, then we are in a pretty hopeless state.

People who need to be reminded to be kind to animals once a year may be kind to them during the week set aside for this rite, provided sufficient force and propaganda are used on them, but they won't be at any other time. All your effort on such people is wasted. And the idea is an affront to every humane and decent person who is kind to animals all the year.

When you tell a decent man to be kind to animals for a week you insult him. You might as well tell him to wash his neck. He expects to do it anyway, without a brass band, a lecturer and a printed pamphlet to remind him. In fact, I am thinking of launching a Wash Your Neck Week as a kind of protest against all the other special weeks, but it wouldn't do any good. If I were to launch a Wash Your Neck Week, nobody would see the beautiful irony of it. Such is the state of society, so regimented and dragoned have we become that everybody would take it seriously.

The facial soap companies would take hold of it and advertise it on the radio to sell more soap, as florists and confectioners have commercialized motherhood on Mother's Day. They would insert colored pictures in the Saturday Evening Post to prove that all the movie stars wash their necks every day, and there would be testimonies from lovely ladies in Hollywood who would say that since they began to wash their necks their beauty had increased enormously and their salaries had been raised; and there would be scientific evidence from obscure Jewish doctors in Vienna who, starved by the Nazis, would write learnedly on the value of neck washing in the prevention of leprosy and old age. And I dare say that within a short time decent people would grow so disgusted with the whole idea that they would stop washing their necks altogether.

However, if Be Kind to Animals Week makes anyone kind to animals who wouldn't be otherwise, I suppose we must support it and the excellent souls who sponsor it. Some people probably have to be bullied into decency. Some young people, they tell me next door, have to be bullied into washing their necks.

NEW RESIDENTS

IT IS EVIDENTLY going to be a bad year for the earwigs out this way. If the earwigs knew what was in store for them they would probably leave now.

The two demons from next door have acquired two bantam chicks, named Jean and Shirley, and you know what bantams do to earwigs. A bantam will walk a mile merely to get a good peck at an earwig, so that everybody out this way who wants a garden has bantams to protect it.

Now these bantam chicks acquired by the demons next door, and now housed luxuriously in the Aunty Air Craft Club, have a curious and melancholy history. They were hatched about a month ago at Mr. Pudbury's place by a mother who turned out to be dissipated and unnatural. Within a week of hatching out her chicks, this ruthless mother deserted them to run off with a strange rooster named Red. Her own husband had disappeared by this time and apparently run off with a strange hen, so that the chicks, you might say, had a bad heredity from the start and an equally bad environment.

It is remarkable, indeed, that they have turned out so well considering their disadvantages. The poor chicks probably would have perished were it not for an aged bachelor rooster who rescued them. While the chicks' mother lived in sin with Red, the bachelor rooster took mercy on the chicks and gathered them up at night and sat on them to keep them warm. Mr. Pudbury said he did it with a certain expertness which suggested that, even though a bachelor, he had raised large numbers of children. You know what bantams are.

Anyway, the chicks flourished under Red and are now ready to go forth and meet the enemy of all bantams on their own. An earwig cannot raise his head within a mile without the chicks rushing forth to get him. The poor orphans are making good, while their dissipated mother riots through the country with that rouser Red.

FIVE TO ONE

ACCORDING TO MY friend Torchy Anderson, writing in the Vancouver Province, a former officer of a famous Canadian regiment died in Winnipeg recently, and the call went out to get six of his officer comrades to act as pallbearers. They could only find five, so the sixth comrade had to be a buck private of 20 years ago. The five former officers all had ordinary jobs, but the big shot of the sextette was the former private. He was general manager of a very large corporation.

This seems to prove something or other, by five to one, but I am not just sure what. Still, it ought to encourage the fellows who are enlisting as mere privates in our local militia. It is not so encouraging for the officers, though.

A CROMWELL ASSOCIATION

A Cromwell Association has been formed in England, nonsectarian and nonpolitical for the perpetuation of the memory of Oliver Cromwell, and a committee is considering in what manner this object is to be achieved. Many prominent men have joined including Lord Tweedsmuir, whose biography of the great Protector has been widely read, Mr. A. Russell Smith, of Coleman's Hatch, Sussex, is the honorary secretary and those who desire to become members of the association are invited to communicate with him.

All But C.C.F. Join Ottawa Cry For Lower Taxes

By NORMAN M. MACLEOD

OTTAWA.

IT MAY HAVE BEEN just a coincidence. Or it may have been the dawning of a brighter and a happier day for Canada's citizenship. The fact remains indisputable, however, that almost the final shout which resounded in Parliament before it recessed for Easter was a demand for lowered taxes.

It was raised by all the political parties with the single exception of the C.C.F. That is to say, Liberals, Conservatives, Social Crediters, and even the Chamber's unique one-man party, Hon. "Harry" Stevens, all joined in paying tribute to the necessity of devising some means of curbing the greed of governmental taxing agencies for the taxpayers' pocketbook.

The suggestion came in its highest and most enlightened form from R. J. Deachman, Liberal M.P. for North Huron. Said Mr. Deachman in an exposition unusually clear-cut, lucid and practical:

"I suggest to the Minister of Finance a striking and bold course. We have an 8 per cent sales tax. Each 1 per cent of the sales tax takes $18,000,000 from the Canadian people. But as the sales tax is pyramided, each additional 1 per cent will carry with it an additional pyramided tax—I do not know how much, but possible one-half of 1 per cent. Measuring it only as a payment of revenue, that would give a total of $54,000,000 to be added as purchasing power of the Canadian people. But allowing for the fact that it is pyramided, it would give an expansion of $80,000,000 of purchasing power to the people. Would not an addition of that much purchasing power improve business conditions in Canada?"

IN SUBSEQUENT debate Gordon Graydon, Conservative M.P. for Peel, provided music of similar sweetness for the ears of tax-weary citizenship by declaring: "We must proceed at once to cut down drastically the cost of government. Further than that, we should abolish government by commissions. We should live within our means and retire our national debt. In addition, we must lift the intolerable burden of taxation from the centre of our national life, the home. Even so unpredictable a crusader as Hon. 'Harry' Stevens supported solid orthodoxy for once by asserting that 'the question of debt and taxation lies at the root of our trouble.' Finally J. C. Landeryou of East Calgary, although he rather inconsistently followed his point by advocating the immediate application of Social Credit principles, suggested that within recent months the people of the Dominion have discovered by their own experience that 'they cannot borrow themselves into prosperity or tax themselves into prosperity.'"

INEVITABLY SUCH sentiments expressed from so great a variety of political quarters must offer some rays of hope to burdened Canadian taxpayers. This, in accordance with that well-known law of self-preservation which underlies nature, the people of Canada are entitled to expect that in the immediate future the pruning hook will be a more popular implement of government than it has been in the past. And, tested by the important standard of results, this is perhaps all that counts. Yet, in the remarks of Mr. Deachman, M.P., there is reason for public satisfaction not confined to the mere outlook for more prudent economy which they raise. For Mr. Deachman—albeit that he is looked upon as cabinet material in some future reorganization of the government—is still only a private member of the Commons. His speech, consequently, furnishes encouraging evidence of the fact that the private members of the Chamber have commenced at last to grasp realities and think in terms of them, instead of chasing New Deal will-o'-the-wisps. They are realizing that burdensome taxation is the foe of employment and the fertile breeder of unemployment.

In brief, that pre-Easter week of Parliament offered reason for hoping that the federal statesmen had partaken of the beginning of wisdom and that sound growth in their stature may be anticipated steadily for the future.

"THE GOLDEN SHUTTLE"

To the Editor:—I notice in your report of a talk given by Mrs. Nellie McClung to members of the local branch of the Canadian Authors' Association that "Radio is the golden shuttle which weaves the country together into a mantle of nationhood." If there is any fact in this poetic fantasy surely there lies a fertile field for public-spirited culture!

Youth is being pressed to show its patriotism by joining the militia to learn to defend this country against the possibility of a surplus of exported munitions being returned. Surely there must be among those who age or sex debar them from joining up, many who would be willing and competent to serve Canada gratuitously on such a noble nationalizing network as the CBC—and so materially reduce overhead that the license could be reduced instead of increased!

It would appear that the directors have judged the feeling of the public towards the recent set-up in license by the handful of letters sent in by individuals. ("The letters written in protest to the increase were written out of a vast amount of ignorance"—I hope the writers appreciate the compliment!) Apparently they have altogether ignored the resolutions sent in by innumerable clubs, societies and Chambers of Commerce, etc., endorsed by thousands of citizens; and the editorials in newspapers all across the continent condemning not only the extra 50 cents but the whole set-up of the CBC.

Personally, I think the public is well advised to keep on protesting such a flagrant flouting of public opinion—even if in the opinion of the radio directors such protest is in "bad taste." GEOFFREY LE GALLAIS, "Robinhurst," Cranmore Road, Oak Bay.

Gorgeous Gown For King's Bride

Countess Apponyi
Has Wonderful
Chanel Trousseau

PARIS (CP-Havas).—The trousseau of Countess Geraldine Apponyi, who today became Queen of the little kingdom of Albania through her marriage to King Zog, comprises more than 100 costumes, entirely created by Chanel.

The Countess was married in a gown which recalls the legendary splendor of clothes worn by Sultanas in tales of the Arabian Nights. Entirely of white satin, it consisted of a sheath, pleated fan-shape, opening onto a heavier redingote falling in sculptured lines from the neckline to the ground. The redingote has long clinging sleeves and is studded in front with brilliant and crystal drops.

The same dazzling embroidery enriches a voluminous court cape, caught at the shoulders and fitted just enough to keep the slender silhouette, flowing down into a long and splendidly-ornamented train. The Countess wore a high diadem fashioned of orange blossoms, wide and rounded. A veil of delicate tulle fell straight down the length of the gown.

Club Bridge Luncheon Success

Miss Agnew Hostess
To Women's
Canadian Club

Twenty-nine tables of bridge and mah jong, in addition to two tables of poker, were in play at "Schuhum," the home of Miss Kathleen Agnew, yesterday afternoon, when the Women's Canadian Club held its annual bridge tea in aid of the club's bursary fund. Owing to indisposition, Mrs. E. W. Hamber, the honorary president, was unable to attend.

EXCELLENT ARRANGEMENTS

The delightful setting and the excellence of the arrangements combined to ensure the outstanding success of the undertaking. Miss Agnew was assisted in welcoming the guests by Mrs. H. L. Campbell, president of the club, Mrs. S. J. Willis, Mrs. James Adam, and Mrs. R. W. Mayhew. The club colors of blue and gold were reflected in the flowers massed in the entrance hall, the drawing-room, library and dining-room, lilac, daffodils, bluebells, plum blossom and tulips being used in profusion. Luncheon was served at the bridge tables, each table covered with a dainty cloth and centred with a vase of bluebells and marigolds.

Under the direction of Mrs. T. A. Johnston, the general convener, and her committee, including Mesdames H. L. Campbell, S. J. Willis, James Adam, R. W. Mayhew, Charles Conyers, Archie Willis, J. B. Munro, T. H. Johns, F. G. Aldous and Miss Agnew, a delicious luncheon was served with commendable expedition, and by 2 o'clock the tables were cleared and the games were in progress.

THE PRIZEWINNERS

The handsome prizes, which were awarded by the tombola method, went to the following: Mrs. W. E. Cook, Mrs. Edwin Tomlin, Mrs. A. Peden, Mrs. George Brown, Mrs. Fred A. Willis and Mrs. J. R. Nicolson. The prizes were the gifts of Mrs. H. J. Pender, Mrs. R. W. Mayhew, Mrs. F. M. MacPherson, Mrs. W. H. Brown, Mrs. David Leeming and David Spencer Ltd. Mrs. T. H. Lonsdale, president of the Women's Canadian Club at Banff, was a special guest at the party.

The W.B.A. Juniors Rose Court met on Saturday afternoon last in the Women's Institute rooms, with the president, Elaine Coates, in the chair. The "mystery box" was won by Connie Henson. On Good Friday the Juniors went on a hike and had a delightful time at Cadboro Bay. At Easter half of the Juniors distributed flowers to the sick children in the Jubilee Hospital, while the remaining members went to St. Joseph's Hospital to visit the children's ward and leave flowers. The Juniors are planning a concert for their mothers and pioneers, to be given in the Institute Rooms, Saturday, April 30, at 2, while the following Saturday also the members are asked to be at the rooms at 2.

Y.P. COUNCIL

The Young People's United Church Council will hold its regular meeting at 6:15 tonight at 644 Fort Street.

King Zog and His Beautiful Bride

King Zog of Albania and the beautiful Catholic Countess Geraldine Apponyi of Hungary, pictured above, who were married amid scenes of barbaric splendor in Tirana, the Albanian capital today. The King met the Countess, whose mother was a New Yorker, a year ago, and is said to have fallen in love immediately. Religious obstacles were partially eliminated when the Vatican's Osservatore Romano announced that the Pope would consent to the wedding if King Zog respected the Countess' religion and consented to rearing their children in the Catholic faith. Zog is 42, the Countess 22.

Miss Eugenie Doherty entertained last evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Doherty, Olympia Street, at a kitchen shower in compliment to Miss Mona McDonald, whose marriage to Mr. Elwood H. Lunney will take place next month. Tulips and daffodils were effectively used in decorating the reception rooms. Upon her arrival, the bride-elect received a corsage bouquet of yellow roses. Little Miss Gloria Longfield, niece of the honored guest, Miss McDonald, handed her the many useful gifts from a clothes-basket which was trimmed with scallops of yellow crepe paper, and had numerous recipe books fastened to its outside edge. Mrs. A. McDonald and Mrs. W. A. Lunney presided when a buffet supper was served from a table centred with a bride's cake, surrounded by cut glass vases containing pale pink tulips and daffodils and lighted by tall ivory tapers in similar holders. Those present were: Mrs. A. McDonald, Mrs. W. A. Lunney, Mrs. F. L. Doherty, Mrs. M. F. Hunter, Mrs. J. A. Longfield, Mrs. Gerald Sharpe, Mrs. W. Finlayson, Mrs. C. R. ## Homemakers' Clubs Doing Fine Work

Miss Bertha Oxner
Tells of Work
In Saskatchewan

Saskatchewan boasts 387 Homemakers' Clubs with a total membership of 7,900, in addition to 140 Girls' Homecraft Clubs, all doing splendid work, Professor Bertha Oxner, M.A., director of women's work for the University of Saskatchewan, told the Times today. Miss Oxner, who is visiting the city until next Tuesday, will address the Victoria Women's Institute on Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock, when outside institutions and anyone interested will be welcomed.

BROAD SCOPE

She is in charge of the women's extension work of the university, and its scope may be gauged by the variety of subjects embraced: drama festivals and oratorical contests, public health work, community undertakings, educational courses, the establishment of community libraries, the encouragement of handicrafts, and generally to promote the best interests of the home.

Despite the trying times through which Saskatchewan has been passing—or perhaps because of them—the women have entered into the extension scheme with enthusiasm, even raising the necessary funds to finance their own provincial convention.

Handicrafts have been emphasized, and an inspirational lead was given, says Miss Oxner, by the young housewife who in a paper at last year's convention, entitled "Beauty from the Scrap Bag," told of miracles worked with jute bags, creating artistic hangings, a smart dust coat, trimmed with gay wool embroidery, and a beach umbrella of the jute, lined with gay cretonne. So popular has this jute idea become that the Homemakers' Clubs sent a display of it to the Federated Women's Institute exhibition in Toronto.

YOUTH TRAINING
Under the youth training scheme, sponsored by the federal and provincial governments, the rural girls are receiving valuable training in homemaking, Miss Oxner said. Under this scheme, three types of work are carried on under her supervision.

Under the first, itinerant instructors are sent out, each having 16 teaching points, and give a full day each month to the various groups. The girls are taught food preparation, handicrafts and similar subjects. In the second type, five-day courses are given under which the girls learn dress-making methods, glove-making, etc., while in the third, which is far more comprehensive in scope, the girls take a six-weeks residential course.

RECREATIONAL ACTIVITIES

Under this latter plan, the classes, which number in size from 30 to as large as 64, were taught by three instructors to prepare their own meals, learned household and laundry routine, and handicrafts. Emphasis was also laid on those agricultural activities such as gardening, poultry-keeping, bee-keeping, the use of milk and milk products, of particular interest to rural women.

In all the classes attention was given to recreational activities. Under this heading the girls were taught community singing, play production, folk dancing and similar cultural pursuits, which afford a welcome avenue of escape from the somewhat humdrum monotony of rural life.

Church Will Ask Views Of Women

NEW YORK (AP)—Every woman communicant of the Episcopal Church in the United States is to be asked during the next three years what she thinks about marriage and divorce.

A sweeping effort to obtain the views of churchwomen on woman's most vital problems was decided upon today by the committee on marriage and divorce of the executive board of the Woman's Auxiliary of the church, in quarterly meeting.

The committee, composed exclusively of women representing every section of the United States, decided on a "referendum" to the women of the Episcopal Church so that ultimately when the national committee makes its report on its three-year study, it will represent not merely the committee's opinions, but the actual thinking of the women of the church.

KIPLING SOCIETY

A large photograph taken of a bust of Rudyard Kipling, the property of the Central Society, London, England, has been received by the Victoria branch of the Kipling Society. This has been framed and will be kept for the members by the president, A. E. G. Cornwell. The original bust, the work of Madame Binguel-Lefevre, has been presented by the Central Society to the National Portrait Gallery in London. At the monthly meeting of the society at the home of Mrs. J. W. Church, Miss B. M. Carlisle read the story, "The Knife and the Naked Chalk," from "Reveries and Fancies," and Mrs. Church read the poem, "The Explorer," followed by discussion. Arrangements were made for the annual meeting of the society, which will take place next month and will be held by invitation of Mr. and Mrs. K. C. Symons at their home.

The Victoria Women's Conservative Association will hold a bridge party tomorrow afternoon at 2.30 at their clubrooms, Campbell Building. ### ST. JOHN'S A.Y.P.A.

St. John's Anglican Young People's Association resumed its regular meetings Monday evening. Thanks were extended to Miss K. Smith, Miss T. Harrison, Miss H. Forsyth and A. The dramatic committee was appointed to consider a repeat performance of the recent comedy. Misses Iris and Lois Scott were welcome visitors. An executive meeting will be held in the A.Y.P.A. room on Thursday evening at 8. The A.Y.P.A. ## Many Attend Cooking School

Sugar and spice and all things nice permeated the Shrine Auditorium yesterday afternoon, when Mrs. E. McLean of Moffat's Limited, opened the sessions of the Moffat Cooking School, before a large audience. The school is being sponsored by the B.C. Electric Company and Kent's Company.

Mrs. McLean, who is making her first appearance in the west, was introduced by Mr. Leslie Lamb, sales superintendent of the B.C. Electric, who outlined the opportunities available to the public wishing to install electric or gas ranges.

Cakes, cookies, biscuits and tarts were demonstrated in many tempting varieties and distributed to the ladies in the audience at the end of the afternoon. Today, short cuts in preparing foods and special ways to cook meats and vegetables will be demonstrated. Thursday, fish supper dishes, pies and desserts will take up the whole afternoon.

Mrs. McLean has been associated with Moffat Ltd. for 18 years. Her thorough knowledge of her subject and her delightful way of presenting the facts, is making her a very great favorite with her audience. Her helpful hints as she prepared her biscuits and cakes were a delightful innovation. Among them she advised that the cookie sheet should not be too large, otherwise the oven heat would not circulate evenly. She suggested, whenever possible, to use a light colored cookie sheet, as the cookies would come out evenly browned. If the cookie mixture is too rich and becomes difficult to roll, place a sheet of wax paper on the table, sprinkle half the sheet with flour, place the dough on the flour and then flour the top half of the dough, pull the unfloored sheet of paper over this and then roll out. By this method, dough may be rolled as thin as desired.

Two very able assistants were on the stage during the afternoon session and will appear with Mrs. McLean for the balance of the lectures—Miss M. Codd and Miss Hilda Allen of the B.C. Electric home service, who assist Mrs. M. A. Foulds, the director. Women attending the school

MOTHER OF FIVE WHO WAS ALWAYS TIRED

Now Awakes as Fresh as a Daisy

A mother of five has a lot to do. Especially a country mother. And this one was "always tired." But Kruschen ended all that—now she gets up, feeling fresh, at five o'clock in the morning! She writes:

"I find Kruschen Salts the best thing money can buy for my health. I am the mother of five children, and before taking Kruschen, I was always feeling tired and run down. Now, I am glad to say that I get up feeling fresh—and I get up at five o'clock in the morning. I do my housework, look after my children, and leave the house at 6.30 to start my daily work." (Mrs.) B.

Tiredness and run-down feeling can be traced to one root cause. That cause is internal sluggishness; failure to keep the inside free from poisonous, waste matter. Kruschen Salts is an excellent recipe for maintaining a condition of internal cleanliness. The numerous salts in Kruschen stimulate your internal organs to smooth, regular action. Your inside is thus kept clear of those impurities which, when allowed to accumulate, lower the whole tone of the system.

GOVERNOR AT CORPS AFFAIR

Boys of Rainbow Sea Cadet Corps Entertain His Honor at Supper Party

Lieutenant-Governor Hamber last night at the Armories presented the King George V Cup for marksmanship and individual medals to members of the Rainbow Sea Cadet Corps, congratulated them on their achievements and said what an asset the organization was to the City of Victoria.

The prized trophy is emblematic of supremacy in miniature rifle shooting by cadets in Canada. On four occasions the cup has come to the Victoria corps.

Ten members received medals in this class and 14 others received medals for the part they played in the Dominion of Canada Rifle Association winter series.

His Honor, accompanied by Capt. Nicholas Van der Vliet, inspected the corps, after being tendered the Royal salute by the buglers. With the party on the inspection were Lieutenant-Commander P. W. Tribe, commanding officer of the corps and Commander C. H. R. Slingsby, R.N., retired, vice-president of the Victoria branch of the Navy League in Canada.

After complimenting the corps on its smart parade appearance, the Lieutenant-Governor presented the King George Cup to Lieutenant-Commander Tribe and individual medals to H. Brown, W. Acland, M. Marshall, L. Fitchett, R. Satterley, V. Rawson, J. B. Smith, P. Mackenzie, G. Gwilt, S. Hawkes, A. Brookman, J. Mason, H. Davies, R. Ferguson, R. Mann, W. Henry, T. Drysdale, H. McAnerin and F. Greensmith. Cadet H. Brown won a special gold medal. The boys were trained by Capt. Walter Brown.

The corps later entertained the Lieutenant-Governor and specially-invited guests at supper in one of the mess-rooms, short speeches being given by His Honor, Commander C. T. Beard and Commander J. E. W. Oland.

A large number of friends and relatives of the boys watched the interesting proceedings from the Armories galleries.

Novel Turns At Dance Recital

Among the interesting numbers to be presented at Dorothy Cox's dance recital on Friday evening is "A Convict Scene." At the rising of the curtain the convicts are seen working on a rock pile. After the arrival of the warden the convicts attempt to escape but are quickly brought to bay by the warden with his threatening rifle.

Miss Cox, who is well known in Victoria for her presentation of junior plays, having twice won the B.C. Dramatic Junior Challenge Cup, will present this year "The Sentimental Scarecrow," who thought, of course, ugly and tattered long for love and sympathy. The passersby laugh at his appearance but Polly eventually, with a kiss, breaks the spell.

HOLLYWOOD ORANGE TREES

Tell the secret of HEALTH and BEAUTY

GOLDEN SUNSHINE and silver rain did their utmost to make these California Orange Trees grow sturdily. But the leaves had pale patches—and only a few oranges hung from the boughs. A forestry expert said the trees needed more minerals. And because there wasn't enough in the soil, fresh minerals were dug into the ground under the trees.

This mineral food revitalized the trees amazingly. Next season they had glossy green leaves and loads of oranges. And it's the same with you and your children. When the glow of health fades from your cheeks—when eyes are dull, lips pale and your pep and bright spirits vanish—the fault is largely with your nourishment—it lacks minerals and vitamins. Thus the simple secret of radiant health, pep and beauty is mostly making sure that you get mineral foods and vitamins, particularly Sunshine Vitamin "D". And this is where Cocomalt will prove its important service to you. Here is a delicious food drink which is rich in the precious Iron, Calcium, Phosphorus and other vital food essentials you need, including Vitamin "D".

It's hard to believe that this new kind of tonic in food form could be so delicious!

Receive Fine Flower Trophy

Local Post Office Gardeners Gain Splendid Award in Big Show

Victoria's Post Office gardeners today displayed the Curtiss Wright Trophy, a gold-washed column with a gilded airplane surmounting it, as a symbol of their supremacy among Post Office employees of the continent in producing sprays from flowering shrubs.

The trophy was one of the most unusual in the recent St. Louis Postal Employees' National Air Mail Flower Show held at the end of last month in the St. Louis Arena.

The entry was arranged by seven of the Post Office staff here, including Angus "Scotty" McKay, G. H. Gardiner, J. E. McRoberts, J. B. Sinclair, C. S. Hinkins, W. Noon and G. C. Bloomfield.

In addition to the major trophy, which stood two feet high, mounted on its bakelite base, the local Post Office employees took honors in several other sections. In the class for six flowers from spring bulbs, Victoria placed second to Vancouver. The Victoria men also took third honors for the best collection of flowers from spring bulbs, second laurels for the best bouquet of native flowers, in which section the local men entered erythroniums, and were given honorable mention for the best collection of spring flowers. First place in the last-mentioned class went to the postmaster of Bermuda.

New Chemical Treatment Succeeds in Meningitis

SUCCESS WITH A NEW chemical treatment for dreaded meningitis is reported by Drs. Francis F. Schwenker, Sidney Gelman and Perrin H. Long, of Sydenham Hospital, Baltimore City Health Department, and the Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore, in the Journal of the American Medical Association.

Ten patients suffering from meningitis, which is an inflammation of the coverings of the brain and spinal cord due to infection, were treated with the chemical. All but one recovered. The chemical used has the long name of paramino-benzene-sulfonamide.

This and a similar chemical, the red dye named Prontosil, have been used successfully in the treatment of hemolytic streptococcus infections such as child-bed fever, erysipelas and scarlet fever.

The 10 cases reported by the Baltimore physicians were of meningitis caused by infection with a different germ, the meningococcus. Meningitis may be caused by other germs. Cases of streptococcus meningitis have already been successfully treated by this chemical remedy.

In treating the meningitis patients, the chemical was injected into the spinal canal and also under the skin. In a number of cases the organisms disappeared from the spinal fluid after the first treatment. In others, it took several treatments. The one patient in the series who did not recover had been desperately ill when admitted to the hospital and died of pneumonia on the fifth day. His spinal fluid had been free of meningitis germs for three days, indicating that the treatment had probably been effective as far as the meningitis was concerned.

Meningitis, due to meningococcus infection is generally treated with an anti-meningococcus serum. The serum treatment has not been entirely satisfactory. In reporting results of the chemical treatment, Dr. Schwenker says that it seems to be as effective as the serum treatment and has the added advantage of being free from the irritating effect due to foreign protein in the serum.

China's Problems Same As West's

Mun Hope Says Oriental Crisis Caused By Violation of Basic Laws

"The Far Eastern civilization and the western civilization have similar problems to face," Mun Hope, young Victoria Chinese, told the Credit Granters' Association at its luncheon in Spencer's dining-room yesterday in the course of an address on "Cosmic Forces and the Oriental Crisis."

Mr. Hope analyzed the forces operating in the present war in China and said they were contraventions of national, economic and spiritual laws as fundamental as those of gravity or of the earth's rotation in its orbit.

In Japan there was a dictatorship of the army which violated all democratic principles, an industrial system built up by subsidies at the expense of agriculture, a religion in which the people were taught they were divine, that the emperor was God's representative on earth, and that their destiny was world supremacy.

In China the process of democracy, coming out of 30 years of civil war into unity and with Christianity taking an important place in controlling the action of several of the chief ministers, had run contrary to Japanese ambitions.

Mr. Hope spoke of the manner in which the Japanese had damaged Chinese economy by smuggling goods into the north of the country through abuse of their extraterritorial rights, and said there was a very serious social menace in the opium traffic which the Japanese encouraged while the Chinese government sought to stamp it out, and which the Japanese used to break the resistance of conquered territory.

He spoke at some length of the Japanese propaganda system, which he said was operating among the negroes of the United States and in various parts of South America as well as in India.

India was part of the goal of the Japanese "Asia for the Asiatics" policy, and as a result a Japanese cabinet minister had said that Britain was Japan's real enemy.

L. E. Evenden, president of the association, was in the chair.

ODDS AGAINST TWINS HIGH

And It Is 1 to 17,000 Against Triplets in B.C.

"Congratulations, Mr. Blank, you are the father of a bouncing pair of baby boys."

Only three fathers out of every 1,000 in British Columbia hear this news from the hospital nurse after they have done their stretch of pacing the floor.

Two other fathers may be told that they are fathers of twin baby girls and another two that they have a baby girl and a baby boy. And the chances that the nurse will come back again and tell the new daddy that he has yet another child, in a triplet birth, are very remote, barely one in 17,000.

These are the odds shown by birth records of the provincial statistics branch. Against 10,381 single births in 1936 there were 96 pairs of twins and just one set of triplets. Of the twins born alive 108 were boys and 79 were girls.

In triplet births, as in the case of the quintuplet Dionnes, there would seem to be more chance of girls. There are only three cases of triplets in British Columbia out of 50,000 births between 1932 and 1936 and eight of the nine children were girls.

LIM APPEAL IS SET OVER

Following an application by Hon. Gordon Wismer, K.C., Attorney-General for British Columbia, the appeal in the narcotics conspiracy case of Gordon Lim was stood over to the next sitting of the court in Vancouver, by the Court of Appeal yesterday afternoon.

Robert Harvey, appearing for appellant's counsel, suggested the appeal be started here today or Thursday.

The Attorney-General replied he had received copies of new grounds for the appeal only on Monday. He said expert witnesses from Washington, D.C., and Ottawa were being kept in Vancouver for a second case, which is supposed to go ahead next week. The appeal, he believed, would last more than three days.

The case will be the first on the list for the mainland session, the court stated.

CONSERVATIVE WIN PREDICTED

Anscomb Says Good Leadership Will Put Them in Power in B.C.

Herbert Anscomb, M.P.P., Victoria, declared at a social gathering of Ward Four Association in the Campbell Building last night that the Conservative party

"is just as sound as ever it has been."

"I am satisfied," he said, "that with vigorous organization and leadership nothing can stop the Conservative party from going into power in British Columbia. The people are aroused to the seriousness of the responsibility of government."

He touched upon the importance of the party choosing a man who would inspire confidence to succeed Rt. Hon. R. B. Bennett as the national leader. Dr. J. D. Hunter, M.P.P., and F. A. Willis, secretary of Victoria Conservative Association, spoke briefly. An entertainment program was given by J. Reid, Miss Betty Fawcett, Mrs. Z. Fawcett and W. Marks.

Release from the chairmanship of the city's celebration committee is sought by Alderman Ed. Williams in a letter addressed to Mayor Andrew McGavin and filed at the City Hall today. Alderman Williams explained he had, owing to pressure of business, been unable to give the committee as much attention as he thought it had required so far.

62 YEARS Young!

"I am now aged 62. About seven years ago I was feeling very run down, and I was advised to take Phyllosan tablets. Much to my satisfaction, I very soon reaped great benefit from them. My energies were renewed, my nerves improved, and I soon felt my old self again. I have taken them regularly at periods since, and as a result I have always been able to follow my work well and cheerfully."

Have you reached the age where you feel yourself sliding downhill physically and mentally? Are you always fatigued? Are you jumpy, nervous, irritable—without joy in the companionship of those close to you? Do you find it difficult to concentrate, difficult to work—losing the respect and confidence of your professional colleagues? Do you fear the future?

Don't take all these miserable symptoms of devitalization for granted as the necessary signs of middle age. They are not necessary! Experience proves that they may be overcome through the simple use of PHYLLOSAN tablets—that, through Phyllosan, you can help yourself renew and rebuild all your energies—that you can actually feel and look years younger!

Phyllosan is the discovery of one of the world's leading physicians, Dr. E. BUEGG, PROFESSOR OF MEDICINE AT THE UNIVERSITY OF BERNE, SWITZERLAND. A product whose primary ingredient comes from purely natural sources, Phyllosan (pronounced Fil-

KIWANIS CLUB WORK UPHELD

"Government" Defeats
Motion For Disbandment at Mock Parliament

Ramming the vague arguments of the "opposition" forcibly down their already well-filled necks, the "government" successfully overthrew a motion for the immediate abolition of the Kiwanis Club, at a lively mock parliament staged by the club members at dinner at the Empress Hotel last night. The dinner took the place of the weekly Tuesday luncheon.

Majestic in his appointment at the head of the table, Magistrate Henry Hall, in the role of "speaker" of the "house," handled his office in a manner that would be a credit to his provincial Legislature contemporary.

PUTS MOTION

In decisive and fiery style, J. Pitcairn Hogg, leader of the "opposition," put the motion before the "house" while the "cabinet" and "government" members rustled their newspapers. The Hon. Mr. Hogg declared the objective of the Kiwanis Club to be abstract to a point of uselessness. The only outstanding feature was the weekly luncheon, he said, and he doubted if the casual acquaintances made at the luncheons would ever ripen into friendship. Speeches at the luncheons, he said, were nothing new. The club had taken great for the accomplishments of other organizations only, and was pandering to the self-conceit of the members.

Frank Paulding, "member for Blanshard Street," in humorous vein seconded the motion. In the face of the motion Harry Douglas, "minister of music," swung the "government" into a lively chorus amid a torrent of objection from the "opposition." Taking inspiration from the song, Joseph Rose, "minister of boys' work," told of the needy and underprivileged boys which the Kiwanis Club was aiding by their Y.M.C.A. memberships and summer camp sponsorships. The Kiwanis Club was keeping youngsters from the streets, and if in this only it justified its existence.

"Opposition" member William Leggett immediately jumped to his feet to declare the "government" ate too much, anyway. William Dreaper, "minister of tuberculosis work," took the platform with a moving story of the achievement the Kiwanis Club had made in that line of service. Fifteen per cent of the annual club funds were paid into the rehabilitation of tuberculosis veterans, and he stressed the importance of the vocational activity which kept them occupied. He cited this work as reason enough for the continued existence of the club.

FINE WORK

Also in support of the "government," Walter Walker told of the work done by the club in aiding in the building and equipping of the new wing of the Jubilee Hospital. Ken Ferguson, "member for Fernwood Road," joined in the "opposition" debate, saying the funds collected by the members came under the sweep-stake classification, and the weekly meetings in the category of "unlawful assemblies."

Murray Martindale, member of the "government," stressed the international importance of Kiwanis amid boos from the "opposition," and told of the great value of the club Victoria College scholarship.

While the debate waxed hotly, Fred McGregor railroaded both "government" and "opposition" members into a "progressive" party, bribing them with promises of more to eat.

Climax and subsequent finish was written to the debate when J. G. McFarlane, Kiwanis president and "premier," rose to his feet. "The more you give, the more you have," he said. "Kiwanis provides the machinery of distribution to the individuals who would like to pledge themselves to community service."

Protest Statue Of Joan Of Arc

Woodworth and MacInnis
Voice Views in Commons
On Quebec Addition

OTTAWA (CP) — J. S. Woodworth of Winnipeg, C.C.F. leader, protested in the House of Commons today the erection of an equestrian statue of Joan of Arc on the National Battlefield at Quebec. It was donated by Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Huntingdon of New York.

Mr. Woodworth said Joan of Arc had no place in Canadian history and a statue of her should not be erected on the battlefield where Wolfe and Montcalm fought the battle that resulted in the British conquest of Canada.

Hon. C. A. Dunning, Minister of Finance, read a letter from Sir George Garneau, chairman of the National Battlefields Board, explaining the circumstances. He said the statue had been donated by the New York couple and erected at no cost to the park board. It was being placed in a sunken garden on the edge of the park, not on the battlefield proper.

Angus MacInnis, C.C.F., Vancouver East, also protested the statue. He asked if the board would accept a statue of William of Orange or Lenin.

The discussion arose on a bill empowering the government to grant $75,000 a year for 10 years to maintain the battlefield. It passed all stages. A similar bill was passed 10 years ago.

Yukon Declared In Need Of Road

Visiting Edmonton, Bishop
Geddes Says Link With South Wanted

EDMONTON (CP) — The Yukon Territory has no fear of finding itself a buffer state, the battleground for any enemy attempting to invade this continent from the north Pacific or Bering Strait, declared Rt. Rev. W. A. Geddes of Dawson, Anglican Bishop of the Yukon, in a visit to Edmonton Tuesday. "No army could hope to march through the Yukon successfully. Alaska would be the buffer in any invasion, he said.

At the same time, said Bishop Geddes, any attempted invasion of the Pacific Coast would imperil the Yukon's communications with the rest of Canada and menace the supply lines on which the territory depends for its living. Therefore the Yukon, now served by the United Air Transport aviation service to Edmonton and to Vancouver, wants a road built as well.

Opposition to the merging of Peace River district, northern British Columbia, the Yukon and parts of the Northwest Territories was voiced by Bishop Geddes. Proposal that such a step be taken was made recently by the Chamber of Commerce at Peace River.

"We have enough provinces as it is and there is no need of carving out a new one in the north," Bishop Geddes said.

Heavy Sentence Is Handed Out

OLYMPIA, Wash. (AP) — One of the stiffest penalties ever meted out in a Thurston County Court for drunken driving was imposed yesterday on William Heikas, 22, by Superior Judge D. F. Wright. Heikas was sentenced to one year in the county jail and fined $1,000 and costs. He pleaded guilty to the charge.

Sports Mirror

By PETE SALLAWAY

ASKED IF HE obtained a bigger kick out of the Dizzy Dean deal than he did in landing Chuck Klein from Philadelphia in the winter of 1933, Phil Wrigley replied: "No, this doesn't give me any thrill in that way. Maybe it would if we had picked Dean up for $800." Sad experience has taught the owner of the Chicago Cubs ball club to be skeptical about headline transactions involving big name athletes who have been around for some years.

Branch Rickey undoubtedly was convinced that the St. Louis Cardinals had gotten about all they could out of Dean. The director of the far-flung Cardinal chain is not the kind to pass off pennant possibilities. Dean suffered from sinus trouble last spring. And the tall, right-hander has yet to conclusively demonstrate that his arm difficulty of last summer has entirely disappeared, despite the fact he has won his first two games for the Cubs.

Dean has not been on the firing line too long, but the great one has been pitching professionally since 1920, and he has been a work horse. Ditz participated in 41 games with Houston in 1931, 46 with the Cardinals in 1932, 48 in 1933, 50 each in 1934 and 1935, and 51 in 1936. The Red Birds certainly got their money's worth out of him.

Cubs have given other National League clubs close to $1,000,000 in cash and players in seven big deals during the past half dozen years. The barter making Dean a Bruin is the seventh. Cubs found themselves short-changed in five of the first six. The only deal that stood up for the Cubs was the one that brought pitcher Tex Carleton from the Cardinals during the off-season of 1933. They gave the St. Louis outfit cash and pitchers Bud Tinning and Dick Ward for Carleton.

The biggest bust was the Chuck Klein deal. Cubs laid out $125,000 and pitcher Lefty Klein, infielder Mark Koenig, and outfielder Gink Handrick to the Phillies for Klein, who flopped as a fence buster. Three years later Klein was returned to the Phils, together with more money and pitcher Fabian Kowalik, for Curt Davis and Ethan Allen. Davis turned out to be nothing more than an in-and-out, and now has gone to the Cardinals, with what generally is believed to be $75,000 and pitcher Clyde Shoun and outfielder Tut Stainback, for Dean. The Browns took Allen on waivers a year ago. Cubs gave the Phillies Dolph Camilli for the utterly incompetent Don Hurst. Phils several weeks ago peddled Camilli, home run hitter and the finest defensive first baseman in the senior circuit, to Brooklyn for a price reported to be $75,000.

Cubs gave the Cardinals Lon Warneke for Ripper Collins and Leroy Parmelee. Collins has failed to play up to the standard he set in St. Louis, and Parmelee has just been ordered to Minneapolis in payment for Carl Reynolds. Chicago salvaged something out of the $75,000 deal with Cincinnati for Babe Herman when they shipped the amusing flycatcher to Pittsburgh with Big Jim Weaver and Guy Bush for the southpaw, Larry French, and Freddie Lindstrom. This piece of business helped the Bruins to a pennant, but it required more cash and Lindstrom lasted only one season.

Woody English and Roy Henshaw went to Brooklyn for Linus Frey, who failed to be of any assistance. So Phil Wrigley has every reason to restrain his enthusiasm in connection with trades within the National League, particularly one closed by Branch Rickey. Wrigley doesn't know too much about the game, but no doubt is aware of the baseball saying: "No one ever dies on the St. Louis Cardinals."

Experts estimate the hen population of England at 80,000,000.

H. E. Morris' Colt Captures Newmarket Classic By Two Lengths

NEWMARKET, Eng. (CP)—H. E. Morris' colt Pasch, by Blandford from Pasca, today won the 130th running of the Two Thousand Guineas, first of the season's five classics. James V. Rank's Scottish Union was second and the Aga Khan's Mira II third.

A large crowd headed by King George saw Pasch, making the second start of his career as a warm favorite, beat Scottish Union by two lengths.

The mile race was run over firm going, the hardness of the ground having had the effect of reducing the field to 18 runners from the 28 first-acceptors. Mrs. H. H. Asquith's Tyram Tag, Mrs. W. Murray's Glen Loan, and Mrs. J. Shand's Seventh Wonder were withdrawn shortly before post time.

His Majesty arrived a quarter hour before the first race, and received a great ovation from the crowd.

RICHARDS IS UP
Gordon Richards, champion jockey of the English turf, rode Pasch, whose only previous start was on April 16 in the Coventry Stakes. He won that event.

Scottish Union, a colt by Cameronian from Trustful, won second place by one and a half lengths from Mira II, who is a colt by Blenheim from Mumtaz Mahal.

The Pasch started col-favorite with Portmarnock at 4 to 1, Scottish Union at 9 to 1, and Mira II 8 to 1.

The Guineas serves to some extent as a test for the derby, which will be run over one and a half miles, half a mile longer than today's race, at Epsom June 1.

Twenty-seven winners of the Two Thousand Guineas, first run in 1809, have gone on to capture the Derby.

The second of the classics, the One Thousand Guineas, will be run Friday. It is for three-year-old fillies only. Today's race was for colts and fillies of that age, although no filly went to the post.

In addition to the King, the Princess Royal, his sister, and her husband, the Earl of Harewood, represented the Royal Family.

GOOD START

The field got away to a good start, with Pasch, Tahir, Rafano, Scottish Union, Farris II, Portmarnock, and Tamtapa the most prominent. Racing by himself on the far side of the course, Pasch appeared to hold a slight advantage over the French colt, Rafano, at the half way mark, the next few being Scottish Union, Lohengrin, Caerlogic, Mira II, Portmarnock and Unbreakable.

Pasch took a definite lead going into the dip where Mira II came on strong, but failed to go through with his effort. Scottish Union overtook the Aga Khan's colt, but could make little impression on Pasch, who ran the race out gamely and won comfortably.

The winning owner is popular with followers of the turf, to whom he is known as "Manna" Morris, because of the 1925 Derby triumph of his colt Manna.

The Two Thousand Guineas of that year also was won by Manna.

Carpet Bowling

Willows-Thistles (Mrs. J. McMillan, skip), A.O.F. Sherwood (Colvin, skip) and Willows Rangers (J. Leiper, skip) carried off the silverware in three final rink matches in the carpet bowling tournament at the Foresters' Hall last night.

The Thistles captured the Spencer Cup with a 20 to 11 victory over Esquimalt Redbirds (Mrs. A. Stewart, skip), while the A.O.F. squad won the Kiwanis Cup by a one-shot margin over the Britannia Horseshoes (Keating, skip) after a close struggle. An extra end was required to decide the match, the final score being 16 to 15. Another close battle saw the Rangers beat Esquimalt Rovers (A. Stewart, skip) to take possession of the Army and Navy Cup. The final score was 18 to 15.

RUGBY UNION OPPOSES PLAN

Objects to Appointment of Varsity Delegate on Provincial Board

A motion to be presented at the annual meeting of the B.C. R.U. Saturday at Vancouver, which proposes to give Varsity official representation on the provincial rugby board, was darkly frowned upon at a special meeting of the executive of the Victoria Rugby Union held last night.

In their "thumbs down" decision, the local delegates were of the opinion U.B.C. should amalgamate with the Vancouver Rugby Union, as they play the majority of their games in mainland leagues.

The Victoria executive pointed out the voting power under the present set-up was evenly distributed between Victoria and Vancouver. Appointment of a U.B.C. member would give the mainland the balance of power.

The meeting expressed thanks to the St. John Ambulance Corps for its fine work during the season, and instructed the treasurer to forward a cheque for $10 to the local headquarters. Brian Tobin, secretary of the Union, announced the sale of tickets for the annual dance Saturday at the Palais de Danse were moving rapidly. Proceeds from the event will go to the injured players fund.

First Division Soccer Saturday

A pair of first division football matches will be played on Saturday afternoon. At the Athletic Park the Victoria West and Young Liberals, champions of the Intermediate League, will meet in a replay of their Jackson Cup first-round match. The clubs tied 2 to 2 in the first meeting. J. C. Dowds will referee.

At the Heywood Avenue pitch Victoria City and Esquimalt will engage in a league fixture, starting at 2.45. Scotty McKay will referee.

HOLD REPS TO SCORELESS TIE

Wednesday League Squad Battles All-stars 70 Minutes to Deadlock

Victoria All-stars who will go up against the crack touring Islington Corinthians here on May 11, battled to a no-score draw with a picked team from the Wednesday and Saturday Leagues yesterday evening at the Athletic Park. It was the first of a series of exhibition games planned to whip the local representatives in first-class condition for the big skirmish.

The exhibition was highlighted by the fine performances of Wally Rowe and Louis De Costa, opposing netminders. Play was listless for the most part.

A picked Wednesday League squad will oppose the All-stars next Wednesday evening at 6.15 at the enclosure, but in the meantime Manager Jimmy Hall will put the boys through their paces in a number of stiff training sessions.

Joe Crowe refereed.

Teams follow: All-stars—Rowe, Wilkinson, Leggett, Kennedy, Robinson, Barnes, Bell, C. Robbins, Ross, Morgan, Payne, G. Robbins and Worswick. Wednesday League—L. De Costa, Wyatt, L. Bradley, Bissell, Reside, Hope, E. DeCosta, E. Barnswell, R. Okeil, Speller and Ball.

vs. R. Williams and W. Cull; final, Mrs. A. Stewart and Miss Durrant vs. Mrs. Ready and Mrs. Hatcher; novice final, W. A. Evans and J. Waldron; final, R. J. Wood; Miss Blyth and A. Findlay vs. C. Fairall, Mrs. Findlay and L. Hall.

Perry Not Signed

TORONTO (CP)—Fred Perry, British professional tennis star, said today he hopes he will "find time" to help out Canada's Davis Cup team this year in preparing for the series with Japan in July or August.

"I will certainly be very happy to come up here and do all I can to assist the team," he said. "However, it must be understood I am unable at this time to obligate myself definitely.

"There has been some misunderstanding, apparently. For one thing, if I do come up I will accept no money for whatever I do. I have signed no contract."

Perry said if his professional playing contract called on him to be "somewhere else" at the time he would be unavailable to help the Canadian team.

One Whale of a Tarpon

Harry Sedgewick, right, Toronto, battled this 247-pound seven-foot-five-and-a-half-inch silver king tarpon for two hours. He finally brought it to gaff. Experts claim this a new record. But you know what fish experts are. He made the catch in the Tio Panuco near Tampico, Mexico. Poncho Pier, left, acted as guide.

Revise Teams For Cup Soccer Final

Perfect Game

A perfect game in the American Bowling Congress, the height of every bowler's ambition, was realized by Mike Blazek, above, Conneaut, O. Barber. Blazek was the only one to perform the feat in the recent tournament in Chicago and the fifth to turn the trick in the 38-year history of the meetings. He has rolled four other 300 games.

Mrs. Horsford Golf Medalist

DUNCAN — Mrs. S. D. Horsford, Victoria, was the medalist in the Interisland golf championship at Duncan with a score of 96. Miss J. Duncan also scored 96, but in the playoff Mrs. Horsford won.

Scores follow: Mrs. Horsford, Victoria — 96; Miss J. Duncan — 96; Mrs. Hadley, Victoria — 97; Miss Peterson — 97; Miss J. Campbell, Victoria — 100; Miss P. Hogan — 101; Mrs. E. G. ## GRADS SET TO CLOSE SERIES

Noel MacDonald, Star Centre, Back in Shape For Tonight's Hoop Battle

EDMONTON—Coach J. Percy Page of Edmonton Grads announced today Noel MacDonald, ace centre, would be in top condition again when his perennial champions meet Toronto Consols tonight in the third game of the best-of-five Canadian women's basketball finals.

The tall centre who starts most of Grads' plays was on the floor only 10 minutes in the second game which the Albertans won 66 to 29. Grads took the first game 72 to 28.

Few fans expected the first final series in three years would extend beyond tonight as Coach Ab Chilcott's eastern Canada champions have not shown yet they are in the same class as the famed Edmonton quintette. Both teams will be at full strength tonight.

A Grad victory will bring the Dominion crown to Edmonton for the 13th time since 1922 when the Albertans first gained the title. Only other team to hold the championship since then was Toronto Lakesides, awarded the title in 1931 when Grads defaulted.

Open Beacon Hill Greens Saturday

The Victoria Lawn Bowling Club will officially usher in another season of play on the club greens Saturday afternoon at 2.30. President C. W. Childs will lead a side against one captained by the vice-president, J. A. Macdonald.

Both men and women will join in the festivities celebrating the 20th anniversary of play on the Beacon Hill greens. There will be accommodation for as many players of local clubs who wish to attend.

JUVENILES IN SOCCER FINALS

Local juvenile soccer squads will go in quest of two provincial championships and one island title on Saturday. The Victoria West Park doubleheader will see a B.C. crown and the island championship at stake, while a third Victoria squad will journey to the mainland in quest of another provincial title.

The first match at Victoria West Park will bring together Ralph Alcock's Victoria Athletic Club squad, lower island champions in the under 15 division, and Nanaimo South End, up-island titleholders. Edgar Borden will referee, with the kickoff set for 2.

Vancouver Ex-Gordons will invade the city to clash with Esquimalt Meat Market, island champions in the under 16 division, in the provincial final in the second match on the twin bill. This match should get under way about 4. Dave Swan will referee.

Esquimalt Meat Market under 14 players will make the trip to mainland to meet Marpole Liberals in the British Columbia final.

Kerrisdale In Cup Soccer Win

Chinese Star In Tennis Victory

OAK RIDGE, N.C.—Max Wilson, Oak Ridge Military Institute southpaw pitcher, struck out 25 batsmen yesterday in hurling a no-hit no-run victory against Wingate Junior College. Oak Ridge won 8 to 0.

Two other batters faced Wilson. One fouled out to third base and the other grounded out to the infield.

U.S. Entries, With Several Triumphs to Date, Bid For Remaining Classics

LONDON—The British are a patient people, but now, as the Irish say, "they've had their sufficient."

Bob Jones and Walter Hagen took their golf titles and they loved it. Don Budge rubbed it in last year by winning three Wimbledon titles and the Davis Cup. Prior to this United States had won the Ryder Cup, the Walker Cup, the Westchester Cup, the Curtis Cup and the America's Cup.

All these Britain lost with rare equanimity, but when Battistich carried off the Grand National Steeplechase trophy, it was practically the end.

Now only three of this season's British sporting classics remain in British hands—the Derby at Epsom, June 1; the British open golf championship at Deal, July 4 to 8, and the British women's golf championship at Burnham and Berrow, May 16 to 20.

With Henry Cotton and Pam Barton playing in top form, it is doubtful if America's limited challenge in the two golfing classics will have much chance.

U.S. HORSES FAVORED

But some English critics are already seeing the possibility of the Derby going to an American-owned horse.

There are, at this early date, four horses owned by J. E. Widener and William Woodward entered in the Derby. Widener has the fifth favorite, Unbreakable, at 14 to 1, and Silver Spear at 25 to 1. Woodward has Olympus at 20 to 1 and Valerian III, an unknown quantity not listed in the early betting books.

Americans are already favored to win the other four sporting features to be held in this country this summer.

Johnny Goodman and Johnny Fischer are being mentioned as the men to beat in the British amateur golf championship at Troon, Scotland, May 23 to 29.

The United States Walker Cup golf team is favored to continue its undefeated record in Walker Cup matches at St. Andrews, June 3 and 4.

Budge, Helen Jacobs and Alice Marble are expected to clean up the Wimbledon tennis titles, June 20 to July 2, and the American Wightman Cup team is conceded the edge in those matches June 10 and 11.

Beat Ottawa In Three Straight

Willoughby Again High Scorer as Vancouver Cagers Score 47-27 Victory

OTTAWA (CP)—Without peers in the Canadian basketball world, Vancouver Westerns rolled homeward on a transcontinental train today after defeating Ottawa Gleebe Grads—in three straight games to retain the national senior title for the coast city. University of British Columbia Thunderbirds were champions last year.

After winning the first two games by scores of 35 to 33 and 34 to 32, Westerns provided a blazing finale by trimming Gleebe 47 to 27 here last night in the third game of the best-of-five series.

"It took eight years to build that team but we won the championship at last," said Coach Ted Milton as the gun ended Vancouver's 31st game since March 1, one of the heaviest campaigns any Canadian titlists have ever been through.

Art Willoughby was Vancouver's ace scoring threat in the final game with 13 points made up of five field goals and three foul shots. One of the best guards ever seen in the east, Dick Wright netted 11 points and Jim Bardsley, stocky forward, scored 10 more.

BEATON SPECTACULAR

Youthful Al Beaton started for Westerns on the forward line and chalked up nine points with spectacular work around the basket. Joe Ross was another standout at centre and although he was credited with only three points, was a potent force on both the offensive and defensive.

Captain Wally Mayers, taking it easy with an injured shoulder, scored the one remaining Vancouver point.

Jack Gordon got into the game and proved a threat but did not figure in the scoring. Doug Gross, who Coach Milton considers has a great basketball future, played the last few minutes.

Ottawa wasted too many chances by trying long shots and finally blew up when Captain Dan McCann was ruled off in the middle of the last half on four personal fouls. Mal Cunningham and Wil Nixon scored six points each while "Wank" Ussher netted nine before leaving the floor with four personal fouls. Ross was ruled off for Vancouver on the same count.

Other scorers for Ottawa were George Laughren, with four points, and McCann with two.

PLAY IS ROUGH

The game was the roughest of the series, with both teams given 16 personal fouls. Vancouver took better advantage of foul shots, scoring 11 to Ottawa's 7.

Defence Minister Ian MacKenzie and G. G. McGeer, Liberal House Member for Vancouver-Burrard, made up the handful of Vancouver supporters who whooped it up as Ross scored the first point on a foul shot. Gordon and Beaton started on the wings for Vancouver with Bardsley and Willoughby remaining on the bench.

Globe crept into the lead at the five-minute mark with the score 8 to 5, but Vancouver pressed hard, and by half-time ran up a seven-point margin with the score standing at 16 to 9.

Persisting in their long shooting game that was effective enough to win them the eastern Canada title, Ottawa wasted dozens of shots by inability to cope with the visitors' hard checks. Vancouver played a methodical, planned game featuring fast passes and shots from close in.

Until McCann was ruled off, Gleebe stubbornly fought back, but when he left the floor, Vancouver swept through them with abandon. Within nine minutes left, Westerns led 30 to 18. Ross was ruled off for four fouls, but his teammates continued their high-powered offensive right to the final gun.

Ottawa kept getting worse and bounced half a dozen easy shots off the backboard. After Ussher left the game they gave up the ghost, entirely as the coast basketballers ran wild.

Cards' Collapse Baseball Feature

Trading of Dean Held Mainly Responsible; Pittsburgh
Finally Beaten

The amazing collapse of St. Louis Cardinals at the outset of the National Baseball League race is causing more comment in the dugouts than the New York Yankees' failure to start off at their customary clip.

Players and managers have a hunch the Yanks are due to start pouring it on the ball about tomorrow, when Joe DiMaggio will break into the lineup as a pinch-hitter. But they don't know about the Cardinals.

They suspect the departure of Dizzy Dean has taken a lot more out of the Reds, mentally and physically, than was generally thought. Dizzy didn't get along with Manager Frankie Frisch but he put fight into the Cards more than any other member of the team.

Yesterday, with slugger Joe Medwick still out of the lineup, the Cards dropped their seventh game in eight starts, a 10-inning 8 to 7 decision to Cincinnati, losing it even after Curt Davis hit a home run with three on in the fourth. The Reds scored all their runs in the last four frames.

HOMER FOR LAZZERI

The last of the undefeated teams went under as Chicago Cubs bunched two triples and a single in the 10th to halt Pittsburgh 5 to 3. Tex Carleton went the route for the winners, checked the Pirates with eight hits. Tony Lazzeri, the Yank discard, clouted a home run.

Home runs by Mel Ott and Jim Rippel featured New York Giants 12 to 8 win over the Phillies. Each side used three pitchers and one was about as bad as the other.

Jim Turner pitched his second smooth victory for Boston Bees as they trimmed Brooklyn 4 to 1, limiting the Dodgers to five hits and never giving them any hope.

The Yankees put on their first big inning of the season to even things with Philadelphia Athletics 5 to 3. They did it all in the third, Lou Gehrig driving one run across with a double and Joe Gordon, rookie second baseman, hitting one out of the park with one aboard.

Owner Clark Griffith of Washington Senators continues to chortle at his acquisition of Zeke Bonura. The hefty first baseman parked one in the stands in the seventh round, scoring a mate ahead of him and beating Johnny Marcum of Boston 6 to 4.

Cleveland won its sixth straight and took a firmer grip on first place in the American League by slugging Chicago White Sox, 10 to 6 on 18 hits. Elden Auker of Detroit let St. Louis Browns down with five hits and beat them 7 to 1.

Gehring hit a three-bagger and two singles for the Tigers. Results follow:

Title Fight Set; Galento Back In

Louis-Schmeling Will Battle in Yankee Stadium; Tony Reinstated

NEW YORK (CP)—His suspension lifted, Tony Galento, was free today to resume his ring warfare and the wish of those who make money when fighters fight was that the "Newark Nightstock" take a leaf from Maxie Baer's book and continue the sentimental stuff about "fighting for baby."

For "Two-Ton" Tony, the portly publican of Orange, N.J., is now the father of a spanking baby boy, born to Mary Galento last week-end.

Gallant were the words Galento got off, his chest on his son's arrival. "He announced he would take his fighting seriously from that date on."

And yesterday the New York State Athletic Commission—apparently in fine frame of mind after Mike Jacobs, to the surprise of nobody, announced the Max Schmeling-Joe Louis title fight would be held in New York—reinstated Tony, that he might brawl with Nathan Mann of New Haven in Madison Square Garden, May 13.

JACOBS IS HOPING

Promoter Jacobs, tickled over the reinstatement, immediately recalled that Maxie Baer took his fatherhood so seriously he came out of virtual retirement to whip Tommy Farr, British Empire heavyweight ruler.

"Look what having a son did to Baer," said Jacobs. "What if it does the same to Galento?"

If it does, nobody would be happier than Uncle Mike because Tony had, always been one to draw crowd, which nobody likes better than promoter Mike Jacobs. Galento, often likened to John L. Sullivan because of his fondness for night life and black cigars, was suspended for refusing to train for a bout with Harry Thomas. Later, it developed, he had hurt his hand.

He couldn't be called a great fighter, but nevertheless fans like his salty talk and lusty slugging such as he used to drop

Charley Massera of Pittsburgh in three rounds in Newark last January, Galento's last appearance. Mann, cooled out in three rounds by Joe Louis last February, defeated Hans Haverlick, Austrian heavyweight champion, in three rounds last week.

BILLS SPEEDED IN COMMONS

Five Measures Passed By House at Yesterday's Sitting

OTTAWA (CP)—The House of Commons Tuesday put on a sudden burst of speed, and while debate was not lacking, more practical work was done than in any one day of the session so far.

Two bills ratifying trade agreements with Guatemala and Haiti, an act amending pension, discipline and service administration in the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, an act authorizing annual contributions to the National Battlefields of Quebec and a bill respecting insurance company investments passed all stages.

A resolution which provided for establishing ownership by the three prairie provinces of their water and water power resources was passed and the necessary bill given first reading.

MANY VIEWS VOICED

During the debate on the trade agreement bills, which ratify agreements already in operation, a declaration was made by Trade Minister Euler that even though Canada would not follow the United States custom of holding public hearings on commodities entering into trade negotiations, the government had received representations from producers and manufacturers "in connection with every commodity under the sun."

Mr. Euler would not commit himself on a suggestion from Hon. H. H. Stevens, Reconstruction, Kootenay East, that the time had come to abandon the practice of making "most favored nation" agreements.

SEEK CUT TO FLUSH GORGE

Proposal Suggested to Make Canal to Esquimalt Harbor
to Improve Sanitation

Cleansing of Gorge waters by means of regular tidal flow promoted by a canal from the headwaters of Portage Inlet to Esquimalt Harbor will be considered by the city health officer to exist on the Gorge bathing beach.

At its meeting yesterday, the health committee tabled a letter on the issue, suggesting condemnation of the waters for swimming, and decided to approach J. P. Forde, Dominion Government engineer, on his next visit to Victoria to discuss the feasibility of such a canal.

The proposal has been suggested several times in recent years. The committee felt that

If it were possible it would flush the Gorge regularly and maintain healthy conditions in those waters.

It was also suggested the Gorge might be used as winter quarters for the Royal Victoria Yacht Club if a canal were built.

T. E. Chester, general manager of Canadian Pacific western hotels, with headquarters at Winnipeg, arrived in Victoria this morning on a periodic visit of inspection. With his private secretary he will be at the Empress Hotel until Friday.

REORGANIZE CITY STAFF

Changes Made in Water Department; New System For Collections

The city water department will undergo further staff changes and new methods of carrying out collections in the near future, Mayor Andrew McGavin, chairman of the water board, announced today.

Under present plans, the department will start at the beginning of June to have meters read once every two months, will issue bills once every two months and will make collections on the same basis.

By that means staff reductions will be possible in the interests of economy. The move was suggested several years ago by city auditors.

To avoid depriving employees of work, the city will effect several transfers. George Robinson, general repair man and truck driver, who will go on superannuation in the middle of next month, will be replaced temporarily by Ernest Oliver, formerly with the lights department.

J. Ran McCann will leave the inside office to take over the post at Cabin Pond, Jack Lake. W. M. Linton, present caretaker here, will be transferred to Japan Gulch to succeed A. Ross, who is also being superannuated.

Two other employees of the department will be transferred as vacancies occur in other branches of the city staff.

Delay Threat To Liner's Sailing

SEATTLE (AP)—The sailing of the S. S. President Jefferson for the Orient at 4 p.m. was threatened with delay today as the American Mail Line and the Marine Cooks and Stewards' Association remained at odds over the hiring of another man in the steward's crew, raising the number to 36. The dispute arose three days ago.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States Communications Commission denied today an application by the principal telephone companies for a 15 per cent increase in domestic rates.

Pawnbrokers Now Out of Business

A second charge against William J. Bellew and Kenneth A. McLeod, partners in the Pacific Jewelry & Loan Company, alleging violation of the Pawnbrokers' Act was withdrawn in the City Police Court this morning when it was reported the firm had discontinued the pawnbroking business.

H. A. Beckwith, defence counsel, told the court the prosecution had intimidated after the first charge that if the complaint regarding the type of pawn tickets used was remedied there would be a withdrawal. Mr. Beckwith said the accused had discontinued this part of their business.

C. L. Harrison, prosecutor, agreed to the withdrawal of the second charge, which also involved the issuing of improper tickets.

DECISION SOON ON THEFT CASE

Further Hearing of Charges Against George Kitchener
Adjourned to Friday

Judgment was reserved by Judge H. H. Shandley today on the first count of one of two charges against George Kitchener whose speedy trial on a charge of breaking and entering and theft from the home of Mrs. Margaret Cook, 1248 St. David Street, opened in County Court today.

The second charge, dealing with theft of articles from another house, will follow judgment on the first point on Friday.

Evidence by Oak Bay Police Chief John Syme dealt with a call he had made to the home of Mrs. Cook on the night of February 1. There he found rooms ransacked and was told by Mrs. Cook that $40 in cash, five coupons, a necklace, three brooches, locket and a ring were missing. A pane of glass in the back door had been broken and the door opened, the chief testified. He stated he had discovered a quantity of jewelry and a revolver under the garage of premises on Mitchell Street, where the accused lived, on March 19. Chief Syme also described the premises, the location of the garage and fences about the property.

Mrs. Cook stated she had left her home locked on the evening of February 1 and had returned to find it ransacked. She described the articles missing and identified a Chinese ring submitted as an exhibit.

For the prosecution, W. B. Lawson sought to establish the evidence had proved recent possession of the stolen goods by the accused and that was sufficient to warrant conviction on a charge of theft.

P. J. Sinnott, for the accused, contended there was no evidence to show George Kitchener had had control of the jewelry or that he had been near the hole under the garage where it was hidden. The doctrine of recent possession was not intended to extend as far as Crown counsel sought to stretch it, he stated.

Judge Shandley asked for authorities on the issue. He suggested the Crown sought conviction on the grounds George Kitchener had failed to deny knowing anything about the jewelry because he had not gone onto the witness stand.

Following further argument, he reserved judgment and adjourned the cases to Friday.

DICKENS GAVE INSPIRATION

Nellie McClung Tells Group
Works of Author Inspired
Her to Write

Speaking before the members of the Victoria branch of the Dickens Fellowship at a meeting in the Fort Street club rooms last night, Mrs. Nellie McClung declared her first introduction, at the age of 15, to Charles Dickens' books, and the impression they made on her, did much towards inspiring her to become an author.

As a young teacher in a rural district in Manitoba, Mrs. McClung said, she read "Martin Chuzzlewit," and marveled over the character of Tom Pinch, a poor, insignificant little man, almost ungainly, yet endowed by Dickens with a nature so lovable that he stood out as one of the most delightful characters in the whole book. From this ability of Dickens to picture with words the hearts and thoughts of the common people, Mrs. McClung drew her incentive to write.

"Most people read Dickens for pleasure," she said, "not for learning or education, but because he makes us laugh and makes us cry. There's a great reverence and love towards mankind deeply rooted in all his books, and through them runs a thread of gold, leading us ever nearer to a better appreciation of the real things in life."

Mrs. McClung concluded her address with extracts from "Dr. Marigold," one of her favorite Dickens' stories, and by reading "Dickens in Camp," Bret Harte's splendid American tribute to the novelist.

The appreciation of the members to Mrs. McClung for her address was expressed by A. W. Arnup, who thanked her for the fine interpretation she gave to Dickens' works, and welcomed her into the ranks of the fellowship.

Members stood for a few minutes in silence tribute to the memory of the late Major R. A. Donald, for many years an active member, and whose loss will be keenly felt by the local branch of the fellowship. The secretary was instructed to send con-

Tentative plans for the annual outing in June were discussed at last night's meeting, with the actual date to be fixed on at the next meeting in May. An appeal from the London Fever Hospital, of which institution Charles Dickens was one of the original founders, was read.

The meeting opened with the customary roll-call and quotations, and among the visitors were Miss F. Holland, who brought greetings from the Winnipeg branch of the fellowship, and Mrs. L. H. Hardie, one of the original founders of the Victoria Dickens Club. H. L. Fensham presided.

GEOLOGICAL WORK SOUGHT

Federal Program This Year
Not Enough For B.C., Says
Asselstine

An increase in the number of geological survey parties in British Columbia this year has been urged by Hon. W. J. Asselstine, Minister of Mines, in representations to Ottawa through Premier Pattullo.

The federal government's program this year calls for five parties working in this province, of which only one will be devoted to geological work. Last year there were nine parties, seven doing geological work.

Mr. Asselstine said British Columbia was entitled to 10 geological parties each year. "These were necessary for the proper development of the mining industry. Under the terms of the Dominion survey, the whole plan of the survey is to line up mining areas for the prospectors but at the present rate prospectors are ahead of the survey in many places."

The minister said allocation of only one geological crew to British Columbia this year was quite inadequate.

Electric Cells and Power

The invention of the electric cell was a landmark in human progress. An Italian scientist, Luigi Galvani, made it possible by a strange discovery 152 years ago. He found that a pair of frog legs would "twitch" when placed between iron and copper.

Giant frame made for armature of water wheel electric generator at Boulder Dam.

Galvani tried to explain the twitching by speaking of "electricity in nerves and muscles" of the dead frog. He was wrong about that, but his tests led to the electric cell. His name is honored today in the term "galvanic battery."

Volta, another Italian, later found that an electric current could be made without frog legs. He moistened pieces of cloth with salt water and placed them between disks of copper and zinc. By piling up the metal disks, with cloth between each pair, he made what is known as a "voltaic pile." With this, a fairly strong electric current was produced.

Volta's name is honored today in the word "volt." A volt is a measure of the force, or pressure, in an electric current. The work of Galvani and Volta led to electric cells and batteries. A simple cell is made up of two substances, such as zinc and copper, with something between them which will carry a current from one to another. Often the metals are placed in a solution of sulphuric acid. A wire is fastened to the upper ends of the metals, above the liquid, and an electric current is made to flow.

A cell with a free liquid in it is usually spoken of as a "wet cell." Nowadays we have excellent "dry cells." They are made in several ways. One kind contains a mixture of plaster of Paris, flour and sal ammoniac. Sometimes cells with a free liquid in them are called "dry cells" just because they are sealed so they won't spill.

Electric cells supply power for doorbells and for flashlights. Bits of zinc in an electric cell are eaten away by chemical action. These bits, called as "electrons," flow to the other substance, which often is carbon instead of copper. The flow of electrons makes an electric cell work.

In modern times, we do not depend mainly on cells for electric power. Giant turbines and electric generators make it possible for us to obtain a vast supply of electricity from the falling of water and the burning of coal.

HOROSCOPE

THURSDAY, APRIL 28, 1938
Adverse planetary aspects are active today, according to astrology, and may interfere with well-laid plans. The later hours of the day are likely to be more fortunate than the morning.

Obstructions and delays may be encountered in business and professional activities. Subordinates may be peculiarly inept while this configuration prevails.

Workers come under a sway indicating strikes, walkouts and insistent demands.

The wise will postpone launching new projects, although there is a sign that seems to promise ultimate success. Mining enterprises are to be productive, but this is a time for planning rather than beginning.

Lawyers are subject to beneficent aspects. Sensational trials in which libel or crooked financial methods are involved are prognosticated.

Al fresco entertainments will assume unusual popularity in the coming summer.

Although the summer is likely to be prosperous in the United States, Americans who have vision will exercise judgment in the conservation of money.

Persons whose birthdate it is have the augury of a year of serious perplexities. Business men may sustain the loss of partners. Ups and downs in financial matters may be disturbing.

Children born on this day probably will be inclined to take a serious view of life and its opportunities. These subjects of Taurus are usually studious and dependable.

Dorothy Dix's Letter Box

DEAR DOROTHY DIX--For a number of years I have clothed and educated a poor girl. Now she has a position where she might be advanced, as she is a capable worker, if she would only give some thought to her appearance. I have tried to encourage her to have her hair waved and to wear neat collar-and-cuff sets and to have her heels straightened and keep herself well groomed, but she can't see that it is of any importance. Do you think I should risk hurting her feelings by telling her plainly about it?
MRS. W.

Answer: I think it is your duty to tell her just as plainly as possible to speak, that slovenliness in a woman is the greatest handicap she can have and that, no matter how hard she works, nor how efficient she is, she will get nowhere unless she is at least neat and tidy in her appearance.

A girl's looks are her capital in these days. They are her letter of introduction, her recommendation. They are what every employer judges her by when she goes to look for a job, and if she is sloppy and frowsy; if her hair is uncombed and her hands unmanicured; if her neckwear is soiled and her skirt needs pressing, she will never be chosen for any but the most menial positions. She is too hard on the eyes for any man to want to spend his days looking at across a counter of a desk. No customers want to be waited upon by a girl who looks gummy and as if she needed to be disinfected.

More than that, the sloppy woman proclaims her laziness by her attire, and that is another reason why she will always be passed over in favor of the spick-and-span girl who has enough get up and go to make the most of herself and her clothes.

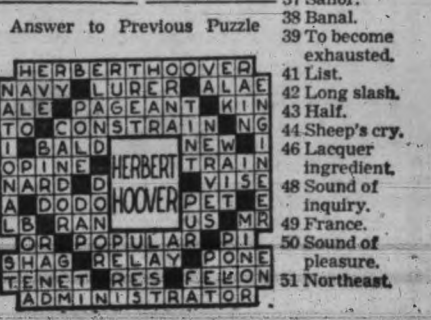

DEAR MISS DIX--My husband and I want to adopt a girl baby, but he is afraid she might turn out badly and be wild and wayward when she is grown. Do you think there is any danger of this? If we do adopt her, should we tell her about it, and at what age should she know?
WE TWO.

Answer: Nobody has a guarantee that even their own children will turn out to be credits to them. You have to take that risk, but if the child is properly reared there isn't much danger. An adopted child should be told it is adopted before it is old enough to really understand. Then it grows up with the idea and is not shocked by it.
DOROTHY DIX.

Great Welcome To World Cruise Ship

The visit to Sydney of the Canadian Pacific flag ship Empress of Britain this month was celebrated as one of the high spots of the 150th anniversary celebrations, which were still in progress throughout New South Wales.

Besides radio broadcasts and public celebration of the liner's arrival, newspapers and magazines devoted columns to a description of the ship in all detail and pages of pictures showed views of almost every public room as well as the liner's modern engine-rooms, bridge and numerous other quarters devoted to the working of the huge white ship or to the comfort of passengers.

A special edition of the Sydney Mail featured the Empress of Britain in one way or another on almost every page of a 68-page supplement in which was inserted a large colored picture of the 42,500-ton liner suitable for framing.

Also featured was a letter to the ship's commander, Captain W. G. Busk-Wood, R.D., R.N.R., from the minister in charge of celebrations, in which the latter welcomed the largest ship to enter Australian waters and contrasted the huge visitor with the first ship to enter Sydney harbor, the 175-ton Supply which reached the now great port exactly 150 years ago.

A. W. Neill of Comox-Alberni Deplores Japanese Activity Off Coast

OTTAWA (CP)—Japanese floating canneries will wipe out commercial fishing on the British Columbia coast if not stopped, the House of Commons was told last night by A. W. Neill (Independent, Comox-Alberni).

He described Japanese mother ships anchored outside the three-mile limit, using small boats to catch millions of fish. The ships stayed for weeks, canning fish as they were caught and later steaming away to Japan with salmon boxed for world trade.

The Japanese were within their legal rights, Mr. Neill stated, and the United States was worried over inroads on Alaskan fisheries.

Only way to stop the practice, Mr. Neill said, was to interest Great Britain and the United States in telling Japan they would not permit its canned salmon to enter their markets if Japan did not stop floating canneries from operating along the North American coast.

It might also be a good thing, Mr. Neill suggested, if the Canadian Minister to Japan (Hon. Randolph Bruce) made representations to the Japanese Government "instead of making himself a willing puppet for distributing Japanese propaganda in Canada."

REALIZES SITUATION
Fisheries minister J. E. Michaud said the Canadian and American governments were negotiating about Japanese fishing, but a remedy could come only from an international treaty. He said the government was alive to the situation.

Mr. Neill criticized the practice of a Dominion fishery officer in British Columbia issuing statements to the press without first consulting the Fisheries Minister. Much trouble would be averted if the practice were abolished, he said.

On a motion to go into supply Mr. Neill brought up a number of complaints respecting fisheries administration in British Columbia. The department, he said, had been guilty of a "record of neglect and total failure to face inescapable facts" in connection with the placing of a dam in the outlet of Comox Lake, which failed to provide the necessary means to enable salmon to enter and leave the lake.

The Department of Fisheries now admitted the dam had killed a run of salmon but refused to do anything about it, Mr. Neill said. There should be a good fish ladder there.

The British Columbia halibut supply would be wiped out by Japanese fishermen, Mr. Neill predicted. They could "clean everything up."

"Their idea of fishing is to take every fish as long as they can see one and then go somewhere else," Mr. Neill said.

The Japanese did that in their own waters and now were coming to British Columbia.

NOT A DREAM
"This is not a dream," Mr. Neill said. "It is going on today and has been for a couple of years."

Mr. Neill told of airplane pictures taken of one of the Japanese floating canneries. The photo showed 20,000 fish on the boat's deck.

He understood there was an agreement whereby the Japanese would send no more ships across for the next year. They had said that last year and he supposed it was a gentleman's agreement used as long as convenient.

Mr. Michaud said three attempts had been made since 1920 to erect a fish ladder on the dam in the Comox area but it always had fallen down. There was not much evidence to show the deep water in Comox Lake above the dam was frequented by any great number of salmon.

There was room for differences of opinion respecting Mr. Neill's criticism of the method of handling herring. Mr. Neill had said principal use of herring in British Columbia was to convert them into fish meal. He added this was a mistake because they were good food. Wholesale destruction of herring—natural food for salmon—had cut down the supply. Mr. Michaud said his department would raise no objection if a different way to handle herring was adopted.

Around the Docks

With a small but interesting list of passengers, the American Mail liner President McKinley, Capt. Clyde Bryant, U.S.N.R., will reach the Rithet docks early this evening from ports in the Philippine Islands, China and Japan.

She has cargo and mails for Victoria and will be in port about five hours before proceeding to Seattle.

Passengers, all of whom will continue to Seattle, are A. G. Chase, consul for the United States government at Canton; H. L. Lapham, engineer with the White Motor Company, who has been on a tour of inspection in the Orient; Clarke G. Boynton, managing owner of the Physicians and Surgeons' Exchange of Philadelphia, and Mrs. Boynton; Chief Pay Clerk Robert Underwood, U.S.N., and Lieut. Commander (retired) Patrick Hill and Mrs. Hill.

While the President McKinley is at the Ocean Docks her sister ship, the President Jefferson, Capt. H. B. Clarke will pass off Victoria on her way to Orient ports from Seattle.

Three Canadian Pacific officials left Vancouver last night for San Francisco to meet the morning from Seattle where they will attend a Northern Pacific conference of freight traffic agents from all parts of the Orient.

Mr. Suckley said Ss. Olympic would start service on the Victoria-Port Angeles run June 17 and that Ms. Quillayute, a recently remodeled ship, would connect Sidney and Anacortes.

The freighter Chr. Knudsen and Geddington Court are today at the Ogden Point piers, each loading 900,000 feet of Vancouver Island lumber for the United Kingdom. Both will proceed to Vancouver tomorrow afternoon to complete. King Brothers are handling them.

Word was received here this morning that Commodore Fritz Kruse of the Hamburg-American Line and master of the flag-ship New York, has retired after more than 50 years at sea. He went to sea in 1890 at the age of 16, in a sailing ship and in 1899 joined the Hamburg-American Line as fourth officer of the Ss. Graf Waldersee.

Fifteen times Capt. Kruse guided German liners on pleasure cruises around the world. He made his last world voyage two years ago as master of the liner Reliance.

One of the most thrilling moments in his life was on December 18, 1934, when he directed the rescue of 16 men from the stricken Norwegian freighter Sisto, about 600 miles off the Irish coast. The rescue took place in a terrific gale, during which pouring rain turned to snow, and wild, hazardous seas threatened to swamp the life-boat.

H. W. Mahler, German consul in Vancouver and British Columbia agent for the Hamburg-American and North German Lloyd Lines, arrived at the Empress Hotel this morning on his monthly visit. He called on local transportation men and will leave for home this evening.

WILL DISPLAY LEAVES HERE

Winning Maple Leaves Will Be Shown at Empress Hotel From May 13 to 20

Owing to the nationwide interest of the annual Maple Leaf competition, which is operated by the Canadian National and the Canadian Pacific Railways, in conjunction with the Canadian Travel Bureau, it has been decided to place on exhibition various points throughout Western Canada, the winning maple leaves.

This most interesting exhibition of prizewinning leaves will be available to the public in Vancouver from May 4 to 11 at the Hotel Vancouver, and in Victoria at the Empress Hotel from May 13 to 20.

This competition, the only one of its kind, is growing in popularity each year and the number of entries in 1937 far exceeded those in previous years.

Of a highly educational nature, the leaves will be of interest not only to grown-ups, but with a special appeal to pupils and students at the public, high school and universities.

A cordial invitation is extended by both railways to all to visit this unique display of nature's perfections.

U.S. WAR GAMES REACH CLIMAX

SAN PEDRO, Calif. (AP)—What the west coast of the United States would face in a naval attack is the problem for which the United States fleet seeks an answer today.

It is the final feature of six weeks of secret manoeuvres. Under a censorship clamped down more tightly than ever before in time of peace 140 warships and 500 warplanes, manned by 3,000 officers and 55,000 men, are moving this week toward a close of the navy's Pacific war games.

Eleven lives were lost, together with three $100,000 sky cruisers, and at least a half dozen other warplanes were forced down in the early stages of the war games last month.

Outbound Liners Skipped Quebec

OTTAWA (CP)—"We are communicating with the steamship company concerned," a member of the National Harbours Board said yesterday, referring to the report two passenger liners outward bound from Montreal had used a tender outside the harbor limits of Quebec to embark passengers and mail bags to avoid payment of charges under the harbor tariff recently approved by the Governor-in-Council.

It was explained, the charge on a vessel for lighting within the harbor would have been in this instance 1/4c per net registered ton, or approximately $21, and the opinion was expressed that only in an isolated instance would the amount of the charge be considered sufficient to cause a steamship company to inconvenience themselves or their passengers to avoid it.
